TREATY AND WAR'S END HEAD BIG PROGRAM

Domestic Questions Awaiting Action Include Return of Railroads
BILLS AGAINST REDS WILL GET ATTENTION
Congressmen Must Also Be Ready For 1920 Campaign After Holidays

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—A crowded docket will confront congress when it convenes in regular session one week from today. Included are the German treaty and the league of nations, the Lodge resolution declaring the war ended, half a dozen other treaties growing out of the war, the Mexican situation and many reconstruction questions.

Domestic matters pressing for attention include return of the railroads, development of the merchant marine, legislation to stamp out bolshevism, reorganization of the army on a peace basis, establishment of the naval policy, tariff legislation, development of public lands and natural resources, encouragement of Americanization and appropriation of several billions of dollars to run this government through the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1920.

In addition to this program, congressmen must participate in the political campaign which will get under way soon after the Christmas holidays. One-third of the senate and the entire house of representatives must stand for reelection.

Many Domestic Questions
Domestic questions facing the new session when it meets next Monday shape up as follows:

President Wilson is expected to return the railroads to private concerns January 1. Legislation must be ready to govern their operation under private control. The house has passed the Esch bill.

The Cummins bill, containing the anti-strike clause which the house rejected, comes up in the senate immediately at the opening of the session. The two houses are far apart and long negotiations to adjust their differences are probable.

If a law cannot be put through by January 1, temporary measures probably will be passed to continue government guaranteed earnings under private control until permanent legislation is enacted.

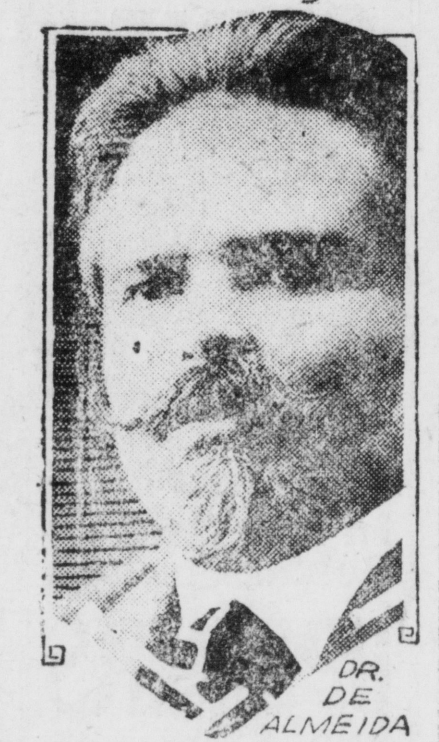

The Plumb plan for control of the railroads largely by employees themselves appeared to be dead for the present.

Bills Aimed at Reds
Scores of bills have been introduced in both houses aimed at "red" agitation and bolshevism. Most of them are in committee. The senate has pending, however, one reported out with the approval of the judiciary committee, by Senator Sterling, South Dakota, designed to punish sending of bombs through the mails and writing or circulation of radical literature advocating violent overthrow of the government.

Bills to deport radical aliens and to require all immigrants to learn English within five years after arrival are pending. Several Americanization bills also are pending, some appropriating federal funds, in co-operation with states and private employers to provide teaching of English to non-English speaking workmen. Naturalization laws probably will be made more strict.

CROWDED DOCKET TO CONFRONT CONGRESS AT COMING SESSION

Dr. DeAlmeida New President Takes Office In Portugal

DR. DE ALMEIDA

LISBON, Portugal, November 24.—Portugal has a new president. He is Dr. De Almeida who has just taken office. He was elected to the presidency after a hard fight.

Dr. De Almeida, who has been in politics for many years, is considered one of Portugal's strongest men. He has progressive ideas and has the confidence of the business and laboring classes alike. He hopes to have Portugal forge ahead in the future and will pay much attention to foreign trade.

Portugal has much room for development in many lines and President De Almeida has declared he will lend assistance to numerous plans for the up-building of that country.

DANGEROUS RADICALS SMUGGLED INTO U. S.
NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Dangerous radicals are being smuggled into the United States at the rate of one hundred a day, according to data collected by the house committee on immigration, investigating alleged failure of the government to deport alien radicals, made public today.

Representative Johnson, chairman of the committee, said the committee had learned Russian "reds" were pouring into Switzerland, Tokio and Yokohama seeking means by which they might reach this country. Great numbers are also said to be entering Mexico on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, whence they are taken by soviet agents to unguarded points on the border and brought into the states.

QUESTION MAN ABOUT FATAL FALL OF AUTO
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—Authorities questioned H. H. Brandt today as to his part in the automobile accident yesterday when the machine driven by Charles M. Belshaw plunged four hundred feet down Pedro mountain.

Belshaw and Mrs. Belshaw and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sherwood, of Spokane, were killed. Sherwood is said to be a capitalist.

W. T. Hess, an attorney, said he saw Brandt's machine collide with Belshaw's. Belshaw had been active in politics for years and had a wide acquaintance.

LETTS SEIZE MITAU AFTER 6-HOUR FIGHT
LONDON, Nov. 24.—Lettish forces succeeded in capturing Mitau from Russo-German troops November 21 after six hours' desperate fighting, according to a Lettish press bureau announcement quoted in dispatches from Copenhagen today. The Letts entered the town from the north and northwest at 5 o'clock this morning, the dispatch said.

TRAIN HOLDUP RELATED BY PASSENGER IN CITY

Mrs. June Coss Tells How Bandit Carlisle Robbed Coach and Fleed

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 24.—"Baffling Bill" Carlisle still is absent without leave from Rawlins, Wyo., penitentiary today. The phantom train robber was last reported in a telegram sent from Claremore, Okla., as enroute to Texas; in a letter to his pursuers, mailed in Denver, and in another letter sent from Omaha. The Denver note saying "please give my regards to the Union Pacific officials," was in Carlisle's handwriting. Detectives here combed the city for the train robber.

WITH vivid details of the hold-up of the tourist train in Wyoming by the bandit, William Carlisle, Mrs. June Coss and her two children of Luverne, Minn., have arrived in Santa Ana for visit with relatives here and in Long Beach.

While she was not robbed, Mrs. Coss was in the coach next to the one in which Carlisle held up several of the passengers and got away with about $300 in cash taken from them.

"It was the most exciting experience of my life, and I don't expect to ever have another as exciting," said Mrs. Coss. Mrs. Coss is a niece of Mrs. Fred Stowe, Mrs. Joe Rose, Mrs. Lydia Shigley and Frank Blencoe, all of this city. She was accompanied here by her two children, aged four and eight.

"The robber walked clear through the train," said Mrs. Stowe, "and sized up the people. We all saw him when he came through our coach, but, of course, did not think anything about him at the time. When he was holding up the people in the coach ahead of us he said that he never robbed soldiers, old men, women or children. I suppose that that is the reason he decided not to hold up our coach, for the passengers in it were nearly all old men and old women.

Shots and Screams
"It was along between 7:30 and 8 o'clock. I had gone to bed in the berth with the children. Most of the people in our coach were still up when suddenly we heard shots fired in the coach ahead of us, and two women, frightened and screaming, came rushing into our coach, saying that a robber was holding up the coach ahead. They were in the middle of the coach ahead when the bandit began his holdup, and they started to run out. He fired to scare them into stopping, but instead of stopping they fairly flew out of that coach and into ours.

"Nearly everyone in our coach rushed back to the diner, but they couldn't get in there, and they had to come back. I decided to stay where I was, and if the robber came along to turn over what I had to him without protest. However, he did not appear.

"The trainmen yelled to the people to get under the seats, and you ought to have seen the scramble. There was hardly anyone left in sight, excepting the trainmen, who were rushing ahead to lock the front door.

"There was a sailor boy in our car, and he asked the trainmen if they were going in to tackle the robber, and they said no. The sailor boy had two revolvers, and he got them and the loads out of his grip. The trainmen told him he would be killed, but he said he would go anyway.

Sailor Lays For Bandit
"The sailor went into the lavatory of the coach ahead, locked the door, and opened up the window so he

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—In an attempt to shatter the world's non-stop record, Lieut. B. W. Maynard, the flying parson, who recently made such a record in the transcontinental race, expects to start at dawn Thursday from Mitchell Field, Mineola, for San Diego, Cal. Maynard will pilot a remodeled De Havilland plane and will have as his mechanic, Lieut. Bradshaw.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Captain Smith, attempting a flight from London to Australia, arrived at Cairo, Egypt, Tuesday and has departed for Damascus, the air ministry announced today.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—All Republican senators and congressmen have been instructed by party leaders to sound out sentiment in their home districts during the present recess so that the national committee may be fully informed when it meets December 10. Chairman Hays of the national committee has sent a letter to each congressman to submit full reports of public sentiment as they find it in their home districts.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24.—Mayor Snyder revealed today that he is receiving telephone calls almost every night warning him that his life is in danger if he does not move to stop the campaign against radicals being prosecuted by city, state and federal officers. "I haven't the slightest fear," the mayor declared today, "but I do wish they would call earlier in the evening before I go to bed."

STRIKERS SET UP MACHINE GUN, HALT WORKERS

Five Companies of Militia on Way to Mines In Hills of Virginia

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 24.—Following a report that a band of miners had armed themselves with machine guns, Governor Davis and five companies of state militia today were enroute to Lee county.

A certain element among the miners is alleged to have refused to allow other miners to return to work. They are reported to have mounted machine guns in the mountains and forced other miners to stay out.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Settlement of the coal strike is expected to be put squarely up to President Wilson after the meeting of his cabinet tomorrow. The cabinet is slated to go over the whole problem and then the various proposals and counter-proposals that have been made, together with the operators' contention that the public will have to pay the higher wages if the miners' demands are met, probably will be placed before the president and his advice sought.

Attorney General Palmer, Rail Director Hines and Judge Ames, assistant attorney general, planned to confer on the situation today. Fuel Administrator Garfield was expected to be present.

Will Call Convention.
A new convention of the United Mine workers will be called to act upon any settlement of the coal strike reached by union officials in conference with operators here, President Lewis of the mine workers said today.

Reconvening of the miners' convention would take four days, it was estimated. Lewis explained that at the recent convention the union officers were ordered to get a sixty per cent increase and a 30-hour week and that any compromise of these demands must be referred back to the convention.

"We shall not recommend settlement to the convention on any less basis than the 31 per cent increase as proposed by Secretary Wilson," Lewis said and denied that the operators have offered to settle on a basis of 25 per cent.

"The operators have made no offer of more than 20 per cent," he said.

Attorney General Palmer, Fuel Administrator Garfield and Railway Director Hines took lunch together today. After lunch Garfield said he expected to call a meeting of miners and operators to make clear the government's position.

$5,000,000 MARKETING CONCERN IS ORGANIZED

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 24.—Organization of a $5,000,000 co-operative marketing company, which will advance capital to farmers for growing and marketing citrus and deciduous crops all over California was announced today.

W. F. McShane, president of the new concern, said to be backed by financiers of this city, says he believes the co-operative plan of growing and marketing will result in cutting the high cost of living to a considerable extent when it is put into effect.

A system of interchange of information among members which will aid them in growing their crops to the best advantage, is one of the features of the organization.

DYNAMITE UNDER BRIDGE
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24.—Police detectives and railway agents today were making an investigation to explain how 14 sticks of dynamite got under the Salt Lake railway bridge near Elysian Park. Workmen found the dynamite yesterday.

Woman Is Appointed As Assistant to Secy. of War Baker

MRS. HANNAH PATTERSON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Mrs. Hannah Patterson has been appointed assistant to Secretary of War Baker, as a result of the excellent work she has done in the past for the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense.

Mrs. Patterson made such a record and was so successful in her efforts to promote the work of the council that she was awarded the distinguished service cross.

She has shown a keen interest in war department affairs, having been an apt student in many of its branches. She has shown unusual executive ability and is expected to be of great assistance to Secretary Baker.

SEEKING ORIGIN OF WILSON DEATH TALE

ATLANTA, Nov. 24.—Police were searching today for the man who last night broke up a mass meeting at the auditorium while Vice President Marshall was speaking, by starting a false report that President Wilson was dead.

Marshall was eulogizing the memories of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln when a policeman rushed up the aisle and a message was whispered to the vice president by Charles J. Haden, a prominent Atlanta, that he was wanted on long distance telephone from Washington, as President Wilson had just died.

The vice president staggered, then, steadying himself, he raised his hand and said:

"I cannot continue my speech. I must leave at once to take up my duties as chief executive of this great nation."

"I cannot bear the burdens of our beloved chieftain unless I receive the full assistance and prayers of everybody in this country."

With that he left the stage. Not a sound was to be heard until Governor Dorcey arose and asked that the benediction be pronounced. The organist began playing "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and the audience began quietly to file out of the building.

As soon as possible Marshall got in communication with the White House, where it was denied that the president was dead.

AUTO TRADES OPENS MEETING IN OAKLAND
OAKLAND, Nov. 24.—The California Automobile Trade Association, comprised of the leading firms affiliated with various branches of the automobile industry in the state, and having a total membership of more than 2800 firms, began a two days' convention here today.

U.S. AGENT'S RIGHT TO IMMUNITY DENIED

Rumor Says Carranza's Note May Refuse Release of Jenkins

STILL HOLD AMERICAN IN PRISON, IS REPORT

Next Step of Wilson Will Be to Demand Reason Why Man Is Not Free

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—What is regarded as a feeler from the Mexican government to test America's temper, was put out today in Washington.

Word was spread that unofficial advices from Mexico City indicated that Carranza, in his reply to the American note demanding immediate release of William O. Jenkins, consular agent, will take the stand that he is not entitled to diplomatic immunity and therefore cannot be set free at once.

According to this information the answer will take it for granted that this government was misinformed about the Jenkins case, that it is one for the Mexican courts to settle and that Jenkins must go on trial on a charge of collusion with bandits.

The Mexican cabinet met Friday to discuss the reply, it was learned at the state department. Governor Cabrera of Puebla, where Jenkins was arrested, was called before the cabinet. So far as the state department knew today, Jenkins is still in jail.

The forecast of the Mexican note it was emphasized by officials did not come through official channels.

The next step of the United States in the event that Mexico refuses to release Jenkins within a reasonable time, will be to demand of Mexico the reason why he is not released, it was authoritatively stated at the state department this afternoon.

It was also reported that the Mexican answer would be evasive and that release of Jenkins might be refused on the ground that he is alleged to have conspired with anti-Carranza rebels. This government, however, still believes the Mexicans will release Jenkins and possibly make an apology, it was learned. At the Mexican embassy, after receipt of messages from Mexico City, which were said to have a bearing on the Jenkins case, it was learned that no crisis existed and that none would develop from this episode.

Mexican Public Is Keenly Watching Case of Jenkins
By RALPH H. TURNER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
MEXICO CITY, Nov. 24.—The Mexican public apparently is keenly interested in the case of William O. Jenkins. American consular agent imprisoned in Puebla on a technical charge of false declarations, but it is not highly excited, either regarding his imprisonment or the attitude of the United States.

While realizing that the American note demanding Jenkins' release leaves no doubt as to its meaning, the public generally seems to view it as only one of the many emphatic notes from the United States—constituting no new features in Mexican-American relations. But there are some persons who hold the opinion that with peace bearing conclusion the United States is in a position to turn its attention to Mexico.

The official attitude here seems to be a preference for keeping the incident local rather than permitting it to become an international issue. This is illustrated by the expressed sentiment that the case rests with the state judiciary and that the federal government has no right to intervene. Extreme nationalistic elements even take the view that the American note is interference in the judicial administration.

TOLEDO-FULLERTON
GAME SEEMS ASSURED

FULLERTON, Nov. 24.—The football game between Fullerton High and the Scott State High of Toledo, Ohio, seems assured. The Toledo boys have wired that they expect to bring twenty-four Latin instead of twenty, and that $500 more than the original guarantee of $5000 will be necessary. In addition, they say they expect to raise $1000 themselves among the Toledo business men.

The Los Angeles backers of the proposed contest wired back at once that the additional $500 would be satisfactory. This meant that Fullerton guarantors would have to add another $250 to their list. This additional sum was immediately subscribed.

The Toledo men are anxious to have the contracts forwarded to them by December 6, also information as to the play date and the grounds. Washington Park probably will be chosen and the game will be played Christmas week.

A meeting of the Fullerton guarantors will be held Tuesday evening at the Fullerton club to name a representative to arrange details.

FOOTPRINTS INCREASE
RIVERSIDE, Cal., Nov. 24.—The skeleton of a man was found in a canyon five miles from Riverside yesterday by two hunters. The only clue to identification was a letter in the pocket of a weather-worn coat nearby, bearing the name of John Pisen, 540 Twenty-eighth street, Oakland, Calif.

HUNS EXPRESS REGRET
OVER TREATY FAILURE

BERLIN, Nov. 24.—America's position in European affairs is not "that of a theater guest who can depart if the play is displeasing," the Deutsche Tageszeitung declared today.

America is destined to have a tremendous interest in "what Germany and Russia may do," the newspaper added, declaring that for this reason the United States "cannot remain aloof."

The German press today generally accepted the defeat of the peace treaty in the American Senate as final and expressed bitter regret over the absence of American representation upon the commission to enforce the terms of the treaty.

BROKER ENDS LIFE AT JAIL WHEN ARRESTED

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 24.—John Howard insurance broker, formerly associated with W. C. Bishop in business here, committed suicide early today by swallowing poison while police were assigning him to a cell at the city jail.

He had just been arrested on a charge of threatening to kill his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Bishop.

When an officer's back was turned Howard swallowed carbolic acid and died almost immediately.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Lillian Megarden of Redlands, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gardner, of 929 East 3rd street.

Mrs. Cora Bower and son Carl spent the day with friends in Los Angeles yesterday.

Miss Bowen of the Orange County Title Company returned yesterday from a pleasant vacation enjoyed at Santa Barbara.

Attorney Chester Smith of the firm of Sonnaker and Smith has been in Los Angeles the past few days on business in regard to leasing his property at Laguna Beach for oil.

Miss May Thompson has so far recovered from a recent severe illness that she was able to leave the Santa Ana hospital today for her home here.

Mrs. M. Scudder and daughter, Hilda, mother and sister of Mrs. M. Algier, are here from Kansas City, Mo., to spend the winter at the Algier home.

C. W. Robinson and family of Tacoma, Wash., who have been guests at the home of R. T. Dixon, have decided to locate in Santa Ana permanently.

The many friends of Mrs. John G. Ryan will be glad to know she is able to be home and is doing nicely, after a serious operation, at the Anaheim sanitarium.

FRANCE WOULD GIVE UP AMERICAN BODIES

PARIS, Nov. 24.—If the American government insists on exhuming the bodies of American soldiers buried in France, the French government will accede, but opinion in French official circles is decidedly against any such plan, it was learned authoritatively today.

France believes it is more democratic to have the dead of all nations who fell in a common cause rest together in France, it was said. France will consider it her sacred duty to care for their graves with the greatest reverence.

The expense of exhumation also would be great, it was pointed out, and only wealthy relatives could afford to have the bodies of their soldier dead brought home, unless the expense was borne by the government. This, the French officials declared, would be sure to cause ill feeling among poor persons.

Hard on Clothes
The "pictures" were a great novelty in Slowville; any traveling outfit was sure of crowded houses.

Recently old Mrs. Brown yielded to her husband's persuasions and paid her first visit to the cinema. She put on her Sunday bonnet and cloak in honor of the great event.

As they entered a thrilling cowboy film was being shown, in which men, cattle and horses were well mixed.

Mrs. Brown gripped her husband nervously by the arm.

"Bill," she whispered frantically, "I'm going straight out. Just look at the dust them 'osses and cows is raisin'! My clothes will be ruined!"

ANOTHER MORAN
'MIRACLE MAN' APPEARS

Umpire's Little College Team Hasn't Lost a Game In Three Years

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Morans of the "Miracle Man" family are becoming the vogue in sport.

Pat, the most noted super-man of the sport realm, is now in winter quarters resting on the laurels won by his world's champion Reds. He left the stage clear for another "Miracle Man," Moran—this one "Charles "Chappy," national league umpire and football coach extraordinary.

"Chappy" entered the hall of fame recently when eleven of the 200 students of Centre College, Danville, Kentucky, whom he had been teaching football, went out and trimmed West Virginia, the conquerors of Princeton.

Recognition was slow in coming to the latest Moran wonder. Since the spotlight was thrown on the little Kentucky college it became known that "Chappy" has been dean of the football department down there for three years and during that time the team hasn't lost a game.

Moran is an old time ball player, having had a career in the minors and a whirl at the big game with the Cardinals as a pitcher and catcher. He has been mixed up in athletics for twenty years. When active participation became impossible, he started umpiring and coaching football teams.

Two Sports Linked.
Baseball and football are linked rather unusually this season. Hugo Bezdek, manager of the Pirates, is coach of the Penn State eleven which ranks close to the top of the eastern list. The breaks seem to have gone against him. Dartmouth won by a lone point over the Staters. But they beat Penn and that covered "a multitude of sins" for them.

"Greasy" Nole, star Red outfielder and one of the shining lights in the world's series, is a star football player and has been coaching a high school team this fall.

Frank Frisch, the sensational Giant youngster, was the "whole team" at Fordham. When he signed with the Giants and became a professional, he broke up the Fordham team. His loss proved so severe that they had to cancel their schedule.

Bob Bescher, former national league player, now in the American Association, is a great football player. He plays fullback on one of the professional teams around his home in London, Ohio.

They stopped the train at the station for two hours, while a posse hunted the man in a cornfield. They thought they had killed him, but it turned out that they hadn't.

"No, I didn't see the shooting. When the man left the train we obeyed advice to keep our heads inside the cars. My children were pretty badly frightened. However, they were not the only ones who screamed. There was plenty of screaming."

Mrs. Coss is leaving today for Long Beach, where she will visit for two weeks before returning here.

ANOTHER OIL RIG IS ERECTED ON THE MESA

The Inter-State Oil Company is reported to be erecting another oil rig about one mile northwest of the first well and on a different lease, on the Newport Mesa. The slacking up of work at the initial well is quite a mystery and the lessors are getting impatient to know a good reason why the well is not being brought in. One claim is that it is in process of cementing off water and is under the direction of the State Mining Bureau, which will give orders to proceed when it is in a state of readiness for the company to drill it in.

LABOR PARTY DEMANDS
JUDGE'S IMPEACHMENT

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—A resolution demanding impeachment of Judge A. B. Anderson, Indiana federal district judge, was adopted unanimously by the national labor party in convention here today.

Ten thousand copies of the resolution were ordered printed and circulated throughout the United States. The resolution was drawn by Robert M. Buck, editor of a Chicago labor organ, and cited Judge Anderson's action in granting an injunction against the coal strike as "unconstitutional."

A wrangle developed on the floor of the convention over the adoption of an official organ for the new party.

He then stepped up to an Italian, who was taking his mother to San Francisco, and told him to pass over his money. The Italian said he had no money, and the robber told him he knew better, because he had seen the Italian buy his ticket. He made the Italian dig up $150, all he had in the world.

"In leaving the train, the bandit broke the glass of the door of the entrance compartment, and in doing so he cut his hand, or else his hand was hit by one of the sailor boy's bullets. We saw the blood spattered over the steps. In jumping from the train, the bandit was thrown head over heels, and he lost his hat and one of his revolvers. When the sailor boy opened fire on him, some others on the train also began shooting, and a lot of bullets were sent after the bandit. Everyone believed that the sailor hit him in the hand.

PRESIDENT IS WRITING
2 IMPORTANT MESSAGES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—President Wilson is at work on two important messages today. The first is his message to congress to be read when congress meets next week. The other is his message to the industrial conference, which convenes December 1.

The message to the industrial conference, it is understood, will lay the nation's industrial situation before the meeting in detail and will urge speedy drafting of an industrial code to which both capital and labor can subscribe. The main features of Wilson's message to congress probably be insistence on quick passage of railroad legislation and reiteration of his determination to hand the railway lines back to private ownership January 1. A strong recommendation that Americanization measures be hurried through, and that the peace treaty be ratified or else legislation for increased armament be prepared and passed as speedily as possible.

D'ANNUNZIO'S ACTIONS

ROME, Nov. 24.—The whole nation deplores the "irresponsible attitude" of Gabriele D'Annunzio which threatens to involve Italy in serious international complications. The Messagero declared today. The press of all parties, apparently realizing the poet-aviator's adventures must be brought to an end, carried lengthy comment on D'Annunzio's Zara coup, severely condemning his actions.

Expressing surprise at Admiral Millo's lack of firmness in failing to prevent the Zara coup, Epoca declared that Italy is tired of adventures such as the Fiume expedition and that they must be stopped.

Leon Rice to Give Another Excellent Program Tonight

Leon Rice

Large Audience Captivated By Rendition of Songs at Baptist Church

Leon Rice, once taken for an Alabama murderer by the Sheriff of Oklahoma county, delighted a big audience with his solo numbers at the First Baptist church last evening, and will be heard again tonight at the same place at 8 o'clock and tomorrow evening at 8:30, the later hour tomorrow evening being on account of the Dixon lecture at the United Presbyterian church.

He is a master of interpretation and he captivated his audience last evening in his renditions of "Fear Not Ye O Israel" (Dudley Buck), "Come Unto Me" (Coenen), "Repent Ye," (Scott) and "The Holy City." The range and power of his voice is a great achievement as well as a gift and from the opening number it was apparent that he was an artist of rare ability. His dramatic expression, splendid voice and charming naturalness combine extraordi-ary talent with exceptional inspiration. Mrs. Jenie Caesar-Rice accompanied him.

Among the numbers on tonight's program are the "Birth of Morn" by Paul Laurence Dunbar; "The Reason" by Ella Wheeler Wilcox; "God Be With Our Boys Tonight," by F. G. Bowles, and "The Americans Come," by Elizabeth A. Wilbur, characterized as an episode in France.

There is no admission charge to the entertainments, a collection being taken to assist in defraying the expenses of this charming entertainer and his wife.

It was in Oklahoma City that the singer was surprised by a call from the sheriff in the belief that Rice was an Alabama murderer the officers of the nation were seeking to apprehend. Rice was aroused from his slumbers in a hotel about 2:30 o'clock one morning and when he opened the door he was looking down the barrel of a revolver in the hand of the sheriff. He was told that he was wanted for murder. He convinced the officer he was not the man wanted.

JUDGE CRAIG TO ADDRESS ELKS DECEMBER 7

Attorney H. G. Ames of Anaheim to Give Eulogy at Lodge of Sorrow

Announcement was made today by William F. Menton, chairman of the committee having in charge the arrangements for the Elks' Lodge of Sorrow, to be held on December 7, that Judge Hugh H. Craig, of the superior court, Riverside county, will deliver the address and that Attorney Homer G. Ames, of Anaheim, will deliver the eulogy.

Judge Craig's address will be along patriotic and fraternal lines. A. J. Garroway and Parks S. Roper, committeemen having in charge the musical features of the program, are expected to announce final arrangements shortly.

BIG DEBT BARED IN DIVORCE HEARING

Whether or not Henry Dahnke of Orange will have to pay his wife, Selma Dahnke, who is suing him for divorce, a suitable sum weekly for the maintenance of the couple's minor child pending the trial of the action, is a question today on the calendar of Department 1 of superior court for determination on December 4. Superior Judge West having continued the hearing on an order to show cause until that date.

A partial hearing was held before Judge West on Saturday. Dahnke, who is unable to work as a result of an affection of the throat, and who is suffering with heart trouble, testified through an interpreter.

It was brought out that on Friday Dahnke had given his father a mortgage to secure promissory notes aggregating $13,000 and given by the son during the past several years. Dahnke's testimony in this regard was given in response by questions put by Attorney Charles D. Swanner. Mrs. Dahnke's counsel, who sought to determine Dahnke's financial status and ability to pay temporarily the amounts asked by the wife.

When the court closed at noon, Saturday, Attorney A. E. Koepsel, counsel for Dahnke, had still a dozen witnesses to put on and for this reason the hearing was continued.

Santa Ana Organization For February Drive to Be Made Tomorrow

During the drive in February for funds for Near East Relief, Orange county is to make an effort to raise a quota of $29,390.14.

Preliminary steps for organization for the drive are now being made by Rev. W. J. Dentler, field secretary of the Near East Relief (Armenian-Syrian) work in Southern California. Rev. Dentler had charge of the drive in San Bernardino county last year, and that county was the first county in Southern California to go over the top in the Armenian-Syrian relief drive.

Organization in Santa Ana is to be perfected at a meeting of representatives of the churches and lodges of Santa Ana to be held at the United Presbyterian church tomorrow evening at 6:45 o'clock. This meeting will be held prior to the lecture by Dr. Dixon and will be over with before the time set for opening his meeting.

This meeting will be addressed by Rev. Dentler. An organization meeting is being held at Fullerton this afternoon, and another meeting is scheduled for Anaheim Monday evening of next week.

The quotas for the Southern California counties are all double what they were last year. Justice W. H. Thomas has been named as Orange county chairman.

Rev. Dentler expects to make plans for a drive for old clothing. He wants to have that drive carried through right away, if possible, so that the clothing can be sent to the Near East at once, and reach there in time to be of service this winter.

Stop Tobacco

Stop tobacco for a month and see how much better you feel. You can stop without suffering any inconvenience or feeling the usual craving. Simply get a box of Nicotol from any druggist, use as directed and the habit quits you. Your health will be better, your resistance to disease will increase and you will cease to be a slave to nicotine. Read what Dr. Vonner formerly of the Johns Hopkins Hospital says about the evil effects of tobacco in an article soon to appear in this paper. Nicotol is dispensed by all good druggists in this city, especially by Rowley Drug Co.—Adv.

ACCIDENT LEADS TO NEGLIGENCE CHARGE

As the result of the accident on North Main street, Thursday evening, in which automobiles driven by William Umberham and Chester Coulson were damaged, Umberham today swore to a complaint charging Coulson with careless driving. In connection with the crash it was stated today that Umberham, who had driven on to Main street from East Fourteenth and turned north on Main, drove his machine westerly across Main in order to enter a driveway at 1496, on the west side of Main. It was stated that Coulson had taken it for granted that Umberham would continue north, instead of crossing the street, and that, acting on this assumption, he, Coulson, had turned toward the west or left side of Umberham's machine in order to go around it. The crash occurred as a result of Coulson having been unable to stop in time, it was said.

HOME LOOTED WHILE MAN IS AT CHURCH

Loot estimated today to aggregate $100 in value was secured by burglars who entered the residence of Thomas Moran, 720 East Culver street, Orange, last night, while Moran was at church. The theft was committed between 7 and 9 o'clock. A quantity of clothing, a suitcase, a hat and two pairs of eyeglasses were stolen. No clew was obtained.

CHRISTMAS SEALS

Plans for the Red Cross Christmas Seal Campaign in California are being rushed to completion by tuberculosis associations in order that everything be in readiness for the big drive which will be made all over the United States from December 1 to 10.

Ninety-two per cent of the money raised by the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals in California is spent in California, eight per cent going to the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis Association to carry on the national fight to stamp out the White Plague. Of the ninety-two per cent devoted to work in California, seventy-five per cent goes to meet current expenses and the balance is used in opening new fields of activity.

So well were the finances of tuberculosis associations handled that during the war period, with all the added demands made in taking care of men rejected by the draft boards owing to tuberculosis, the associations were not only able to meet these demands without calling for additional funds, but California took first place in handling this class of cases.

SENATORIAL ECONOMY

There is economy even in the United States Senate. Perhaps that "economy" is unfair; but let it stand. Traditions must be maintained, and it makes a better editorial. Senators are supposed to be millionaires, and the c. of l. has swept over the capitol with such devastating effect that senators are economizing. Their methods are instructive and inspiring.

Senator Gerry of Rhode Island, is described by an enthusiastic correspondent as actually "driving his own car" to save the salary of a chauffeur. Senator Spencer of Missouri, goes him one better by driving to work in a flivver, just like the folks back home. Senators Wolcott of Delaware, Kellogg of Minnesota, and Watson of Indiana, who used to set an example in economy and democracy by using the street car, have taken to walking since the fare rose to seven cents.

Senator Henderson of Nevada, is doing his own caddyding on the golf links.

Senator McCormick of Illinois, is having his suits and overcoats "turned."

Senator Simmons of North Carolina, and Johnson of California, are raising their own vegetables on a farm outside of Washington.

Senator Johnson of South Dakota, buys canned goods at army sales and wheels them home in a baby carriage.

With such illustrious examples, why should any private citizen be a spendthrift?

BUSINESS FICTION

There are styles in fiction as in clothes. The habits and thoughts of a time are mirrored in its short stories. The tight-waist and the hoop-skirt had their counterparts in Victorian fiction.

Of course "fiction" in this sense does not include the big, timeless productions of the few great masters of the art.

Consider the magazine story. What does the average reader "eat alive?" Sex stuff, as such, has dropped entirely out of the present favor, and sought its own level in some of the lesser magazines. Sentimental war-time stuff, pushed out in an evident effort of editors to get rid of it all quickly, finds hardly a reader over the age of seventeen, unless it is touched with business interest.

That is the fiction of today—the business story. The romance of business is coming to the front. The great game of taking an infant business, coddling it, petting it, disciplining it, bringing it safely to maturity—that game which absorbed the few great fortune-makers of the late nineteenth century—is now played by everyone with the conscious knowledge of business as a game.

The department store stories, the returned soldier who takes a girl partner in the automobile repair shop, the various household budgeting stories are all variations of the one theme.

The flavor is wholesome. Business has ceased to be a fight to the finish. It has become a friendly, co-operative sport. Women are interested in work outside the home, and men have begun to see that housekeeping is a business and not mere sentimental drudgery. Everybody is interested in the individual opportunity which is so sane and cheerful, a characteristic of America.

MOVIE TITLES

The art of the motion picture drama is not confined to the pictures. A great deal of attention is paid to the titles and sub-titles in making the best photoplays. In the ordinary pictures, however, the titling is frequently so inartistic as to inspire the ridicule of even the uncritical movie fan.

That the careless titling should be carried over into educational films is very unfortunate. In such pictures the accuracy of the whole thing is the important feature; yet ignorant or indifferent persons are permitted to write the titles for the pictures, with very strange results.

A lecturer tells of a picture of a group of monkeys showing three distinct species, one of which was the diminutive marmoset. The imaginative and sentimental writer of the titles had called this a "family of monkeys" and had called attention especially to the "baby"—in fact, an adult marmoset. The lecturer, of course, knew his business and explained the picture correctly.

The educational possibilities of motion picture photoplays seem almost limitless. But is it necessary to hinder the good educational film may do by having the titles written by someone who knows nothing at all about the flowers or animals or scenes shown? A great many of these educational films are shown between the feature plays at regular motion picture theaters. There is no lecturer to point out the inaccuracies. The confidence of the spectators would be gained and held by correct titles.

Supports Americanism

Minneapolis Journal

The bill pending in congress that would bestow citizenship only upon those applicants who can read and write English will help to preserve the national integrity and support the Republic.

The man who cannot read and write English is not prepared to be a citizen of the United States, no matter what his virtues and intentions. He is mentally handicapped, as much so from the standpoint of American citizenship as the illiterate. For what boots it, though he be versed in Russian or Teutonic culture, if his eyes and ears are not open to the American ideas? It is these men, nurtured and confirmed in other cultures, who regard our constitution as an eighteenth century document written by pioneer farmers, and who urge foreign reconstruction of our obsolescent American institutions.

Widespread use of the German language here offered the German propaganda its indispensable vehicle. The English language affords to us our best hope for American propaganda. No man here who cannot speak and read English, no matter what his good will, can hope to be adequately Americanized. Our politics, truly the science of government, will fail us if our population becomes or is suffered to remain polyglot.

The language of the constitution, of Washington and Lincoln is "English undefiled" and the language is ours as much by rightful inheritance as it is that of Englishmen. By preserving our language, we can best preserve our institutions, our liberties, the republic, Americanism.

The Right Idea

Stockton Record

Oakland and Berkeley have the right idea about tradition. Not even to honor former President Roosevelt would they consent to have the name Telegraph avenue changed to Roosevelt avenue. This is the main artery and one of the oldest streets in Oakland and traverses both cities. With it are associated historic memories of the early days that ante-date even Roosevelt's greatness. All over California are men and women who carry the name Telegraph avenue in their hearts as associated with their college days. To many residents of Oakland and Berkeley it means their pioneer fathers and mothers who laid the foundation for these cities' greatness, who were a part of these towns when they were mere villages and who gave them this name which it is said, is not duplicated in any other city, at least in California.

These early traditions should be sacredly guarded. It would be as shoddy as being ashamed of one's mother to be willing to rip them up to make way for a greater name.

The writer is inclined to side also with the alleged "fashionables" of Berkeley who oppose the planning commission in its wish to root out the historic old name of Claremont boulevard, which is also a fine mouthful descriptive of the beautiful colony nestled at the foot of the Claremont hills, and call it something else for the sake of uniformity. Uniformity in streets and numbering is a fine thing to have in a city, but it is not everything. Public bodies are apt to be too mechanical and practical in their ideas of improvement. The old landmarks and twists that make a city distinctive are usually the most interesting and quaint things in it and should generally be left as they are and improved but not changed.

Woods Are Full of 'Em

Let's Go!

(Chicago Herald and Examiner)

Put one hundred men on an island where fish is a staple article of sustenance. Twenty-five of the men catch fish. Twenty-five others clean the fish. Twenty-five cook the fish. Twenty-five hunt fruit and vegetables. The entire company eats what thus is gathered and prepared. So long as everybody works there is plenty. All hands are happy.

Ten of the allotted fish catchers stop catching fish. Ten more dry and hide part of the fish they catch. Five continue to catch fish, but work only part of the day at it. Fewer fish go into the community kitchen. But the same number of men insist upon having the same amount of fish to eat as they had before.

The fifty men who formerly cleaned and cooked the fish have less to do owing to the undersupply of fish. But they continue to demand food.

Gradually greater burdens are laid upon the fruit and vegetable hunters. These insist upon a larger share of fish in return for their larger efforts in gathering fruit and vegetables. It is denied them and soon twenty of the twenty-five quit gathering fruit and vegetables.

But the entire one hundred men continue to insist upon their right to eat.

The daily food supply gradually shrinks. The man with two fish demands three bananas in exchange for one of them. The man with two bananas refuses to part with one for fewer than three fish.

Finally the ten men remaining at work quit in disgust. Everybody continues to eat. The hidden fish are brought to light and consumed. Comes a day when there is no food of any kind. Everybody on the island blames everybody else.

What would seem to be the solution? Exactly! We thought you would guess it.

For we repeat that you can't eat, buy, sell, steal, give away, hoard, wear, use, play with or gamble with WHAT ISN'T.

THE MAN OF THE MESA

The Man of the Mesa
Looks out on the sea,
And thrills with the vision
So sweeping and free.
With full inspiration
And thankfulness bright,
The Man of the Mesa
Has found his delight.

The Man of the Mesa
Can toil in the sun,
Till morning and evening
Are blended in one;
Then taking his cue
From the ocean's broad gleam,
The Man of the Mesa
May peacefully dream.

The Man of the Mesa
Unites in one berth
The billowy main
And the mountains of earth;
The strand with its foam
And the land with its dust,
The Man of the Mesa
Possesses in trust.

The Man of the Mesa
Bids all the world peace,
With sweet recognition
That his may increase;
And when he is called
To "pass under the rod"
The Man of the Mesa
Finds ALL in his God.

Your present prosperity isn't worth two whoops, old timer, unless you salt down some of the surplus.

You can't judge a woman by her appearance on the street or by the appearance of her parlor. Take a look at her kitchen.

They have captured the last of Zapata's rebel army, and now everything is quiet in Mexico except for the several million other rebels.

In this glorious country women have equal rights with men. A mob of 150 women stoned men who were trying to go to work at Youngstown the other day.

When a car driver quits the road and tries to climb a telephone pole in these arid times, people are willing to admit that the fault may have been with the steering gear.

TERRIBLE! PRINTER MIXES

AUCTION WITH WEDDINGS

Printers will make mistakes. In that regard they are almost human. Type will tangle. W. L. Miller, of East Fourth street, was reading his old home town paper, the Beacon, published at Winfield, Henry county, Ia., an evening or two ago and he came across something that struck him as being unusually good.

Here's the article he saw in the Beacon:

Every printing office that uses a linotype machine casts each line in one solid piece of metal, and when a bunch of these lines are spilled it is called "pi."

The following article shows what trouble ensues when pi is made and time is very short to catch the mails:

The printer of a neighboring paper "pies" a galley of type which contained the notice of an auction sale and on the same galley was the account of a beautiful wedding which had just taken place. They sorted out the lines the best they could and when the paper came out last Friday, it read something like this:

"Mr. Hiram Smith, a soldier just recently returned from overseas, was disposed of at auction at 1 p. m. last Sunday to Miss Carrie Higgins, on my farm one mile east of Fair- plane in the presence of seventy-five guests, including the following to- wit: 2 mules, twelve head of cows, six sows. Elder Nugin tied the nuptial knot, and the ring ceremony was used. The home was tastefully decorated in roses and one spade, one sulky rake, one feed grinder, one set of double harness. Just before Mendelssohn's inspiring wedding march was rendered by one Jersey cow with calf, one cow to be fresh in August, one milk cow carrying a bunch of flowers in her hand, and wearing a gown trimmed in light spring wagon with tongue for wine colored silk hose with shoes to attach to self dumping rake, and one manure spreader, one two horse shoes of low pattern of white kid. The many articles too numerous to was continued during the prayer. The grindstone and shovels, rakes, are shown over dainty muslin lin- gerie.

The groom is well known and a popular young man who always stood well in the society of the town and Berkshire hogs, including 4 sows while the bride is an accomplished school teacher of a splendid district of Poland China hogs with pedigrees in complete and attached to the bill of presents were nicely arranged on a self dumping Deering twine binder and the flower girls were dressed in seven tons of baled hay, five of straw.

The bridal couple left Monday for an extended eastern trip and will be six months time to responsible parties, to furnish bankable note with and will go to housekeeping at an elegant home on Elm street prepared by Penny Bros. auctioneers."

COULDN'T HAVE HAD MORE TROUBLE DODGING TURKS

With the wind blowing whizzingly and hungrily, to say nothing of the dust, an Armenian garbage collector went forth with his trash wagon to gather trash.

Not since he left Turkey, if that is where this particular Armenian came from, has the garbage man had such an exciting time.

He drove along Sycamore street and while he lost a goodly percentage of all the waste paper he gathered from boxes, the real fun began when he began piling on great boxes of waste at the west entrance of Rankin's store.

Breeze! Yes, it was breezy, and loose papers began kiting, flying, sailing and perambulating. Sycamore street was alive with papers. The trash man grabbed and seized, and still the papers flew. He flopped flat down on his back on the pile and spread out his arms and legs and yelled to the driver to beat it, and beat it he did. And still the papers flew, for the Armenian wasn't a quarter big enough to cover the load.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success.

They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pains, no griping, no injury to the gums or danger from acid foods—yet they stimulate the liver and bowels. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they clear clouded brain and perk up the spirits. 7c and 25c a box.

Does the Christmas Present Problem Ever Bother You?

We can take all the Christmas shopping worry away for you in ten minutes.

It is a great bother to find just the right thing to give each of your friends, isn't it? It is if you do your shopping in the usual way. You never know whether John already has a silk cravat or whether Mary wears a wrist watch and you'd hate awfully to give them something they do not need.

Here's the answer—give YOUR PORTRAIT. You know whether they have a late picture of you or not and you know there is nothing on earth that will please them better.

Inexpensive, too. Ten minutes in our studio will be long enough if you are in a hurry, but you ought to give us your order right away for Christmas delivery.

PLAYING SAFE

"The farmer's life is the only
life."
Say I, but I write for a living.
"The farmer's life is the only
life."
That sort of bunk they're giving.
(The banker banks with all his might.
The merchant trades from morning till night.
The lawyer laws and the preach-

The politician still makes speeches.
And never a one shows signs of

Attend Los Angeles Reception

Clara Barton Tent No. 14 of Los Angeles, Friday evening tendered a reception to the national and department officers of the Daughters of Veterans. This reception was held in Eagles' hall, 320 South Main street, which was very prettily decorated for the occasion.

Permelia Daugherty, president of Clara Barton Tent, presided while an entertaining program of music and readings, finishing with a beautiful flag drill, was given. One national and eleven department officers were present. Escorted by the colors, the officers were marched to the front of the hall and introduced. Greetings from the large company assembled were received. Following this pleasant duty, the national officer, Frances Davenport, and Department President
Eva Bell were called to the platform.
Each in a happy little speech voiced appreciation and pleasure for the courtesy extended, assuring the audience that more frequent meetings of the different Tents in the department could not fail in bringing about a most harmonious feeling and that better acquaintance would bring about better work.

Those attending the reception from Santa Ana, besides Department President Bell, were Department Secretary Leonore Ward, Margaret Robertson and Mae Thomas, president and secretary of Sarah A. Rounds Tent
No. 10.

W. C. T. U. Meeting

The regular meeting of the W. C.
T. U. will be held tomorrow (uesday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Yingling, 312 East Walnut street.

This closes "Self Denial" week and is a mothers' meeting, with Mrs. Fannie Lash, leader. The offering for the old ladies' home is still open.

Spanish Class Dinner

Friday will long be remembered as one of the most enjoyable and profitable days in the school life of about forty high school students of Spanish.
Despite the raging wind, nine automobiles ventured a trip to the Mission Inn at Riverside. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. A. B.
Gardner, Mrs. Sauerman, Miss Watson, Miss Swann, Miss Gallup, Mr.
Chamberlin and Mr. Walker.

The house curator of the Inn entertained the students in the music room with a lecture in Spanish on the construction of the building. They were then conducted from room to room, where the various objects of interest were explained. At 6 o'clock a Spanish dinner was served in the dining room, followed by a special organ recital of Spanish music.

Everything possible was done by the management to make the visit one of great interest and pleasure to the students.

Dr. Borden, the curator, speaks Spanish with great fluency. He is possessed of an unusually large vocabulary and is thoroughly informed on the subject of Spanish art and literature. During the course of his talks, he touched upon many phases of Spanish life and culture.

The Mission Inn is a rare treasure to the lover of things Spanish. The language department hopes to make at least one trip to Riverside possible to every student of Spanish in the high school.

Improvement Club Meets

Wednesday, November 19, at the home of Mrs. Wm. McOmie, at Los Alamitos, the Ladies' Improvement Club met in honor of the retiring officers, Mrs. Trimbal, Mrs. Dodd and Mrs. Bennis.

Games were enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served.

Those present were, Mesdames Trimbal, Cendra, Dodd, Bennis, Poe, Strodthoff, Heaston, Verbeck, Norton, Cave, McOmie, James Watts, George
Watts, Martin, Metzler, Brightwell, Clanton and Mrs. Gill and Mrs. Haskel of Artesia; Misses Cave, Trimbal, Sclat and Barkum.

The club is organized for the purpose of self-improvement, and welfare of the school, visiting the sick, etc.

The newly elected officers for the ensuing year are: President, Mrs.
Wm. McOmie; vice-president, Mrs. K.
V. Bennis; secretary, Mrs. James Heaston; and treasurer, Mrs. Cendra.

Called East by Sad News

Mrs. E. E. Vincent left this morning for Clay Center, Kans., accompanied by her son, Roy Vincent. They were called by the death of Mrs. Vincent's father, who passed away yesterday. Roy Vincent will make a business trip to New York city and the steel mills in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, parents of Mrs. Vincent, came here to spend the winter, but the former's health being poor, they returned home, having arrived there about a week ago.

Mrs. Gale Honored

Mrs. McCleery, Mrs. Trueblood and Mrs. Mary V. Whidden were the hostesses at a delightful afternoon party
Saturday at the latter's home, 518
South Main street, at which Mrs.
Anna H. Gale, treasurer of the Hor-mosa Chapter, O. E. S., who expects to leave for San Francisco to make her home about the first of the month, was the honor guest.

Zinnias and marigolds were used to carry out an effective golden yellow color scheme, which was also observed in the dainty refreshments served.

The guest list included the Past Matron and the 1919 officers of the Hermosa chapter, who enjoyably spent the afternoon fashioning a layette for a member of the association, who is ill.

Charming Tea

One of the most charming affairs given recently was the tea given by Mrs. Chas. Hosea Saturday afternoon at her home, 414 South Broadway.

The pleasant rooms were decorated with asparagus fern and pink ivy geraniums in bouquets placed most effectively.

The ladies who braved the wind, enjoyed a pleasant afternoon. Miss Caroline Huff played two musical selections of Chopin and responded with a pleasing encore. Nothing could have been sweeter than the lullaby sung by Mrs. Ernest Crozier Phillips.
Miss Linda Paul gave one of her inimitable negro dialect readings. Miss Gertrude Montgomery also favored with an interesting reading, after which refreshments were served.

This charming hostess has given a function the Emma Sansom chapter ladies expect to repeat throughout the season.

Quiet Wedding

Upon the arrival of Miss Marian Polhemus Miller from her home in Morrisville, Buck county, Pennsylvania, Saturday evening, she was quietly united in marriage with Peter Morgan Bonnar by Justice J. B. Cox.
The marriage is the culmination of a pretty romance. Miss Miller, Pennsylvania while the groom was stationed there for some time, during his two years' service as a marine in the U. S. Navy, from which service he was released three months ago.

Before entering the army, the groom made his home in Northern California. The three months since his release he has lived in Santa Ana, where he and his bride will be established in their pretty new home at 1040 West Third street after Thanksgiving.

40th Wedding Anniversary

Four generations were represented at the fortieth wedding anniversary celebration given Saturday, Nov. 22, by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moore, 1419 West Ninth street. They were married in Nebraska but have lived the last sixteen years in California, the last six years being spent at Orange.

White carnations and ferns were used in a beautiful centerpiece for the table upon which was served an excellent dinner.

Those present to express their good wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Moore were, their son, Norval Moore, Mr. and Mrs.
Ray Moore and family, Mr. and Mrs.
Earl Farrar and family, Mrs. Elizabeth Moore and George Moore, mother and brother of Mr. Moore, Mrs.
Elizabeth Robinson, cousin of Mrs.
Moore, all of Huntington Beach, and Mrs. Ellen Young of this city. Mrs.

J. Fontis Thompson and Mrs. Jennie Lenker, former Nebraska friends who are spending the winter in Los Angeles, were also present to enjoy the pleasant afternoon spent in social conversation. The eldest guest was Mr. Moore's mother, who is ninety-two years of age, the youngest, his granddaughter, little Doris Moore, aged three.

Torosa Rebekah Class

The Orphans' Sewing Class of the Torosa Rebekah lodge will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of the Noble Grand, 820 West Fourth street.
The ladies are asked to please bring their canned fruit donation.

Mission Society Meets

The regular meeting of the Missionary Society of the First Baptist church held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. S. Catland was one of exceptional interest, the subject being, "California Indians." Rugs, baskets and beadwork, with one of the ladies dressed in Indian costume to greet the ladies as they came, made a very interesting and artistic setting.

The program given with Mrs. Mc-
Killop as leader was as follows:

Devotionals, Mrs. Maryatt; History of the Indians, Mrs. Brakeman; Legends and Myths, Mrs. Wagers;
Our Mission Work, Mrs. Catland;
Mrs. Baker sang "The Land of the Sky Blue Water," by Catman; and Miss Kathleen Owens played one of McDowell's compositions.

At the end of the program, delicious Indian pudding was appropriately served as refreshment.
The walnut pickers of the society turned in $45 and $50 was turned in by Miss Lasby and the Philathea class for the Lasby-Carson scholarship. This amount will be given annually for the Kaka school in Burmah.

Several new members were admitted to the society.
Mrs. Geo. Ash and Miss Owen who are attending the Americanization course in Los Angeles, gave splendid reports of their work. Ten dollars was turned in for that fund.

Altogether, it was a "red letter" day for the society.

Pleasant Surprise

Miss Fannie Wiley of Anaheim was given a pleasant surprise by her friends on her eighteenth birthday
Friday evening, November 21.

Those who were responsible for this courtesy, some of whom were from this city, were Mr. and Mrs. J. S.
Swindler, Mr. and Mrs. William Devenney, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. T. Swindler, Misses Dorothy Swindler, Maxine Sparkes, Helen Schub, Kathie Poling, Ray and Mildred
Dickenson, Rose and Ethel Maddox, Laura Knowlton, Lora McClellan, Lola Hunt, Lucile Baumgartel, Elizabeth Lentz, Ethel Wiley; Meses, Victor
Wiley, R. W. McClellan, H. G. Carlin, Otto and Theodore Lentz, Paul Gillett,
J. D. Hutton and Wayne Andrews.

Pretty Birthday Party

Mrs. Ray Morrison, 1001 North Parton street, was hostess at a charming affair Friday night, honoring the birthday of her daughter, Miss Clea Morrison.

A large birthday cake adorned with candles was placed before the honoree. Cecile Brunner roses were also used as table decorations. Cake and ice cream were served as refreshments.

Viola music and games served to make the evening one of much enjoyment.

Those participating in this pleasant affair were Misses Nell Cathcart, Grace Cathcart, Willie Cathcart,
Marie Gillespie, Mary McCarter, Vera
Easton, Anna Boyd, Marie Erghart, Gladys Gillespie, Helen Jamison,
Viola Sauermann; Messrs. William Cathcart, Pete Collum, Albert McCar-ter, Dave Smith of Los Angeles, Boyd
Morrison, Clyde Cathcart, Arthur
Kubtz, and Mr. Richardson of Fresno.

City and County Briefs

Anaheim Council, Knights of Columbus, held a memorial service Sunday for departed members. It was the first time this ceremony was conducted by the Anaheim council. All who have died within the last eight years were included. District Deputy F. L. Hope, of San Diego was present and there were large delegations from the Whittier and Santa Ana councils.

Ed Roberts, of this city, buyer for the Anaheim Beef and Provision company, has returned from a three weeks' trip through Utah purchasing supplies for the company he represents. Besides purchasing a few trainloads of cattle and sheep he bought two tons of turkeys and one ton of chickens, all on the hoof, for the holiday trade. He states that Utah is prosperous and stockmen, produce raisers and ranchers generally there are receiving good prices for everything they have for sale, and a good demand.

Pinned under their machine, James L. Tucker and J. A. Smith of Los Angeles suffered for several hours before they were released by parties passing by and discovering them in their predicament. Their car turned over at the corner of Prospect and Santa Clara avenues, believed to have been the result of attempting to make the turn while the car was going too fast. It was near midnight when they were found. Tucker suffered the fracture of an arm and badly cut eye. Smith was not seriously hurt.

A lease on a part of the premises at 207 West Fourth street has been secured by F. C. Pope, well known real estate dealer of this city, from Henry Johnson, who recently purchased a part of the barbering equipment owned by I. W. Van Cleave. The portion of the storeroom leased by Pope is being remodelled by him and he plans on fitting up a first-class office ate and insurance business. Pope formerly was associated with C. M.

McCain in real estate business here;
Van Cleave will move shortly to Chowchilla, near Madera, where he will conduct a barber business.

C. E. Holmes, for a number of years identified with billiard parlor interests in this city, has purchased of M. Romeo the billiard room and cigar stand at 309 North Sycamore street.
A barber shop now located in the front of the premises will be removed. A number of improvements are planned by Holmes.

New machinery, which will greatly enlarge the capacity of the plant, is being installed in the Seaside Laundry at Balboa, owned by Mr. and Mrs.
F. V. Dennee. A dry cleaning and pressing department is also being added to the business. Mr. Dennee has quit as motorman on the Newport P.

E. line and will devote his entire attention to the growing business.

Dr. Boyd, who is a missionary from China and has been living on Balboa Island for the past several weeks with his family, will sail next month to take up his work again in foreign missions.

Mariam Bastanchury, the 5-year-old daughter of J. B. Bastanchury, well known wealthy orange grower and son of the late Domingo Bastanchury of Fullerton, died Saturday night at the Angelus hospital in Los Angeles.

Automobiles owned by Henry Seba of Orange and G. H. Dow of this city were in collision yesterday at the point of the detour on the state highway at the Culver corner. It is reported that none was hurt and neither of the cars was badly damaged.

Mrs. Smith, 315 West Second, had two watches stolen yesterday by some one who broke into her residence in the afternoon.

J. K. Moon is another auto owner who has suffered the loss of a spotlight by the operation of a spotlight thief in this city. The auxiliary light equipment was stolen Saturday night while he was attending the Temple theater.

A. J. Perkins is to read a paper tonight at the regular meeting of the Monday Club. The club will meet at the home of Fred Rafferty.

C. G. Twist and F. B. Brown- ing Attend Meeting In Los Angeles

Flames Do $1200. Damage to Mrs. A. R. Hervey's Beach Residence

Apparently Given False Tip to Send Officers to the Wrong Section

The Southern California Golf Association meeting was held in Los Angeles Friday, the delegates from Orange County Country Club being C. G. Twist and F. B. Brown.

The first tournament will be at San Gabriel, January 7 to 10, inclusive, followed by Los Angeles on January 21 and the next three days. Two meetings are scheduled for the month of February, Altadena, being host on February 5, 6, and 7 and, Virginia on February 19, 20 and 21.

The open championship will take place at Annandale on March 7, 8, and 9. Brentwood has taken four days, commencing on March 25.

Los Angeles made the winning bid for the Amateur championship to be started on Tuesday, April 6 and the rest of that week.

Annandale will welcome all comers on April 22, for four days. This course has lately been changed to grass, and will rank with the best.

Victoria holds open house on May 14 and 15, and the season is brought to a close by Midwick from May 20 to 23.

During the past week the usual sweep gave way to the weather which took matters into it's own hands and beside sweeping all the sand off the greens, deposited a thick coating of sand all over the fairways and numbers thirteen, fourteen and fifteen. This coating will be thick enough to seriously interfere with play on these holes, until after a good heavy rain.

The road into the club is also a heavy sufferer, being buried in many places eight to ten inches in dust, for ten to twenty yards at a stretch.

Next Saturday, weather permitting, there will be a club match against Long Beach played on the local course. The beach men say they will bring about fifteen players, and the home club is determined to take care of them.

There are going to be numerous team matches between the various clubs this winter, but not a regular schedule, as that was found to be too irksome, when tried three years ago.

The cry of a baby, awakened by smoke, brought about the discovery of a fire that last night about 9 o'clock partially destroyed the beach residence were at Balboa, and spent the day Hervey of 1209 Spurgeon street, Santa Ana. The loss to Mrs. Hervey's house is no more than covered by the insurance of $1200.

How the fire started is a mystery. The cottage faces Newport Bay, and is located quite close to other summer homes. On the west is the residence of Mrs. Vanderlip, with a distance of not over six feet between the walls of the two houses. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hankey have the upstairs of the Vanderlip residence rented, and Mrs. Vanderlip and her son occupy the lower floor. Mrs. Hankey, who is a nurse, has been taking care of a baby for Prof. and Mrs. Bray.

Yesterday Mrs. Hervey and her children were at Balboa, and spent the day in and about the bay front residence, leaving about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. That was the first time the place had been opened since October 1. While there yesterday a gas burner in the kitchen was turned on to heat water for some tea. There was no fire in any other part of the house, and the fire of last night could not possibly have come from any smoldering paper or cloth that became ignited in the kitchen.

On leaving, Mrs. Hervey tightly closed and locked every door and window.

Heard Infant Crying

Last evening, about an hour after she had put the baby to bed, Mrs. Hankey heard the infant crying. She ran upstairs, and found the room full of dense smoke. The smoke had poured into the room from the Hervey cottage. Mrs. Hankey gave the alarm.

The fire department was called, and excellent work was done by it in putting out the flames. That the cottage did not burn down completely and other buildings with it is considered evidence of the good work done by the firemen.

Investigation convinced the firemen that the fire started in the downstairs bedroom, for the pillows and mattress of the bed were charred. Fire burned through the ceiling and floor of the second story, and up through the roof. The whole interior of the house where not burned was smoked. The kitchen suffered little.

Judge J. W. Ballard of Los Angeles, former judge of the superior court here, and his wife were visiting Mrs. Vanderlip. Judge Ballard plied a stream of water upon the walls of the Vanderlip residence.

On examining the house today, Mrs. Hervey felt convinced that none of the locks on the doors and windows had been disturbed excepting those broken by the firemen in gaining entrance to the house.

SECRETARY OUTLINES ASSOCIATION POLICY

"A recent circular letter," says G. W. Kitzmiller of Orange, secretary of the County Sunday School Association, "sent out from Los Angeles announcing the State Sunday School convention at Whittier, December 3, 4 and 5, and addressed to pastors and superintendents of Sunday schools, contained an appeal to the Sunday schools of the county for money. The financial policy of the Orange county executive committee was submitted to the superintendents and pastors in July, with the pledge that no appeal would be made to the schools for 1919 support. That pledge was made in good faith and the letter from the state association does not apply to Orange county.

"The campaign to finance the county work, including the state apportionment of $705, is still incomplete, and individual members of Sunday schools throughout the county will be asked to support the work, but this appeal will be personal and not to the school unless some pastors and superintendents desire the county secretary to present the matter to their school in the public congregation. This will be gladly done, and the invitation of any pastor or superintendent for this purpose will be accepted."

SUPREME COUNCIL TO SEND HUNS NEW NOTE

PARIS, Nov. 24.—The supreme council today discussed the situation created by departure of the German delegates sent here to discuss methods for carrying out the terms of the peace treaty and decided to send a note to Germany.

The council also decided that future negotiations between the Poles and Germans over boundary questions will be held in Paris.

Sir George Clark, head of the allied mission in Budapest, has notified the supreme council that a Hungarian coalition cabinet has been formed and that he is leaving Budapest.

The One Day In The Year When The Dinner Must Be Above Par

Next Thursday will be a home day. It will be a day of feasting and thanksgiving. A day on which to remember with gratitude the blessings that have been ours. Particularly are we thankful for a year of peace. It will be the right of every American this year to celebrate Thanksgiving Day after the fashion of our forefathers who paused in their work of hewing out a wilderness to count their blessings and celebrate the first Thanksgiving Day in America. Next Thursday will be a day when good things to eat will be demanded. We have made special preparation to furnish all these good things. We have given special attention to the quality of them and we know that if you let us furnish the things f or your Thanksgiving Table you will have the best that the land affords.

Let Us Suggest The Following

We will have a Heinz Demonstration at the West End store on Tuesday and at the East End store on Wednesday. Don't miss it. Sample the plum puddings and Fig Puddings, and the mince meats. You'll find it cheaper to buy these fine things already made.

HIGHER PAY FOR ARMY AND NAVY MEN SOUGHT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Higher pay for all men in the army and navy will be one of the first questions to be considered by the house at the beginning of the regular session on December 1st, leaders of the military and naval committees said today.

That increases will be granted seems practically sure. Representative Butler, Pennsylvania, chairman of the house naval affairs committee, said. Plans are being considered to make the increase the same for men in both the army and the navy and toward that end a joint committee of the military and naval committees will meet early next week to frame the new schedules to be recommended to the house.

BUENA PARK NEWS

BUENA PARK, Nov. 24.—The residence of E. E. Thurman, south of town, now occupied by J. E. Shepard, caught fire on Wednesday afternoon and it was only through the efforts of Mr. Thurman and Mr. and Mrs. Shepard that the building was saved. It is thought the fire originated from papers being burned in the fireplace. The sparks flew from the chimney onto the roof and it was some time after the fire had started that it was discovered. A large hole in the roof over one room is about the extent of the damage.

Mrs. Lester Connolly of Los Angeles, is in Buena Park visiting her sisters, Mrs. R. H. Meyer and Mrs. J. F. Simpson.

TIBBETS ANXIOUS TO GIVE AID TO INDIANS

Riverside Enterprise: Jonathan Tibbet, pioneer and friend of the Indian, is returned from ten days spent among the Indians of the different reservations and states that there will be a reorganization of the Indian settlement work in Riverside, promising to give to whatever society has over the effort full details of conditions as he finds them. Speaking of the problem in a road way, Tibbet said in part: "I had, after going through all of the reservations, that the Indian needs real friends in order to save the race. There are many tangible things that can be done for them, but it could not be left to cranks, faddists or pink tea parties, held by people who never get nearer to the real Indians than their own attractive drawing rooms. "I have important data and pictures showing the conditions on the reservations, and believe that it will be possible to develop more of a sympathy for these people and co-operation with them in their attempts to secure an adequate living on the reservations."

FEJOA MAY DO WELL NEAR SAN BERNARDINO

San Bernardino Sun—The Fejoa is proving what it will do very well in its locality as has been proved on one three year old trees near San Bernardino. There must be more than the tree, however, and those who have tried just one have had good results but no fruit. As yet the fruit is not at all well known but the flavor is delicious and when better known they will probably be a few trees in every garden.

The Fejoa has the combination flavor of strawberry, pineapple and banana. The fruits are about as large as hen's egg. They may be eaten as they are picked, the pulp being pressed out through an opening in the fruit. It may be made into jam, jelly or preserves. They may be used as a breakfast dish with cream or sugar or jellies they are not peeled, but simply boiled and strained immediately.

One fourth less sugar is needed. The Fejoa season is from November to January. The Fejoa shrub is used as an ornamental, for hedges or ramp plantings. It blossoms in May and will carry large crops of ripe fruit in November and December if several shrubs are planted together give cross pollination. The mature shrubs are 8 to 10 feet in height.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Low Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieves the Ailments of Change of Life.

"During Change of Life I had hot flashes, dizzy spells and every month I was wild with misery. I had a constant dull pain, and would always feel tired. I suffered in this way for five or six years and was treated by a physician and took different remedies without benefit. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me and I took it, and I believe I would never have been well if it had not been for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am recommending your medicine to all women ailing as I was, for I think it will carry them safely through the Change of Life, and relieve the ailments that come at that period."—Mrs. ALEXIE C. NANGLE, Malatia, Ill.

Women who suffer from nervousness, "hot flashes," backache, headaches, "the blues," should try this famous not and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and if complications exist write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years' experience in such cases is at your service.

BIG NEW CHURCH BEING PLANNED AT TUSTIN

Board of Trustees, Session Appointed to Arrange Building Plans

TUSTIN, Nov. 24.—A congregational meeting was held at the Tustin Presbyterian church Sunday morning to consider the matter of building a new church. Chairman of the board of trustees, W. L. Leiby, called the meeting to order and Rev. W. S. McDougall was elected moderator.

A similar meeting had been held in 1917 and a committee had been appointed to look into the cost of church buildings. Mr. Leiby reported that committee, after consideration of a plan, had dropped the matter on account of war conditions, but a new committee had been investigating the cost of such building. S. E. Tingley, chairman, reported visits to church edifices in Santa Ana and other places and gave prices at the time these churches were built. He explained that the price of building material had advanced 25 per cent and labor in proportion. After some discussion it was decided to take a vote by ballot as to whether a new church should be built. The result of the ballot was 70 for and 3 votes against.

Motion carried to appoint the board of trustees as a committee on finances and the session a committee on plans, after which the meeting adjourned.

There is urgent need for more Sunday School room. The church has a $5500 manse and a $2000 church. A majority of the members think the time has come to take active steps toward building a new church.

A special Thanksgiving meeting of the Tustin Presbyterian Missionary society was held Thursday afternoon at the church the president Miss Minnie C. Childs presiding. Devotional exercises were conducted by Miss Sheats. The business part of the meeting opened with an interesting report of what the Presbyterian mission boards are doing for immigrants, Mexicans and Spanish Americans and in lumber camps. Miss Childs read an interesting story of the children's home life among the Southern Highlanders.

Mrs. Welton, returned missionary from Korea, gave an entertaining talk on the women and mission work in Korea, illustrated by children in costume. The children were Mary Eleanor and Barbara Welton Elizabeth Utt and David McDougall. A solo was sung by Mrs. Vera Smith accompanied by Mrs. Inman. A thank offering was taken amounting to over $100 to be used for mission purposes. An interesting feature was the exhibit of some souvenirs from Korea.

Refreshments were served by the executive committee who had charge of the meeting. During the social hour Mrs. P. H. Ebel gave a report of the last Presbyterian meeting. There was a special prayer service for those mentioned in the prayer calendar.

A meeting of Tustin Advent Christian missionary society will be held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. Squires.

Wm. Kenyon purchased the home recently vacated by Frank Arundell and family.

W. A. Jones is attending the National Y. M. C. A. convention now in session at Detroit, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Turner returned Tuesday from a trip to Grand Canyon and Phoenix, Ariz.

Arthur Ladouceur left Monday for Algiers, Washington, where he intends to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Settle of Alpaugh, Cal., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Turner Friday and Saturday.

HOUSE OWNED BY MRS. MARTIN CATCHES FIRE

Fire partially destroyed what is known as the old Martin House at 877 Chestnut street, Riverside, early Friday afternoon. Living in the house were W. H. Brown, traveling superintendent for the Southern Sierras Power company, and his family. Brown rented the place furnished from Mrs. A. Martin, of Laguna Beach, owner of cottages and apartments houses at Laguna Beach.

The blaze, which is believed to have started from a chimney, gutted the upper floor, and the lower story is considerably damaged by smoke and water. Most of the furniture was removed.

COMMISSION MAY ASK $25,000 EXPENSE FUND

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Instead of cutting in for a full ten per cent of the world's series money, the national commission in the future may be allowed a lump sum of $25,000 a year for operating expenses. This recommendation is to be made by National League club owners at the December meeting, according to the committee appointed to name a successor of Gary Herrmann as chairman.

The American League men also favor the move, according to the board of directors, which recently asked the commission to turn over its share of the spoils.

Both Ban Johnson and John Heydler, presidents of the Leagues are said to favor this move.

GIVEN SUSPENDED SENTENCE
J. C. Hernandez, formerly of El Modena, who was charged with failure to send his children to school, was tried in justice court, found guilty and given a thirty days' suspended sentence. Deputy District Attorney W. F. Menton prosecuted the charge against him. Among those who testified were W. P. Read, George L. Carlton, G. M. Bartley, Alphonso Hernandez and George Miller.

SOVIET CONTROL IS OPPOSED BY BAPTISTS

Association Passes Ringing
Resolutions at Conference
In Fullerton

Declaring itself opposed to soviet government, the Santa Ana Baptist Association at its meeting at Fullerton passed resolutions favoring 100 per cent Americanism and reaffirmed its loyalty to the constitution of the United States. The conference was a representative one, there being a large attendance. Resolutions also were passed supporting the Red Cross and urging an increase in the salaries of ministers.

The resolutions were as follows: "That we reaffirm our loyalty to the great principles which are embodied in the constitution of the United States, believing it to be the highest expression of wisdom in political government known to the world. We are glad to accept that document as the creed of Americanism. We are opposed to that form of government known as the soviet or government by class, as calculated to sharpen class antagonisms and eventually destroy the republic; and we put ourselves on record as in favor of a government by political parties embracing all classes, as the best mode of expressing the will of the people and as an instrument for correcting industrial, moral and political evils."

For Red Cross
The Red Cross resolution was as follows:

"We reaffirm our faith in the Red Cross and commend anew its work in the relief of distressed nations and its ministrations to the soldiers yet in uniform and we join with the headquarters of the Red Cross in urging our members to enroll in that organization one hundred per cent of our strength, but we request that moneys received by the Red Cross from members of the Baptist churches of this association be not used for the distribution of cigarettes to the soldiers, believing that the cigarette is an instrument which breaks down the physical efficiency of American manhood."

Recommendations Increased Salaries
The resolution on ministers' salaries follows:

"Resolved, that the churches of the Santa Ana Association put themselves on record in the matter of ministerial salaries as follows: Actuated by a desire to practice economic justice toward the devoted ministers and missionaries of this association, we urge that all ministers and missionaries having to support a wife and children should receive a salary of at least $1,750 a year."

Favors Law and Order
The association also put itself on record concerning law and order as follows:

"We urge in this time of industrial unrest and readjustment our firm decision to rely upon the regularly constituted authorities for securing and enforcing justice and order and we declare and oppose as best we may all resort to mob violence from whatever source."

The next meeting of the association will be at Hemet, with Rev. R. E. Day of Riverside as preacher.

CHAMP WOMAN HIKER PAYS VISIT HERE

Mrs. Myra R. Collins, daughter of J. S. Hayward, a pioneer hardware man of this city, who died several days ago, was in Santa Ana for a short while today while hiking from Los Angeles to San Diego on what she characterizes as merely "a little side trip" in connection with more strenuous exploits of pedestrianism which have carried her thousands of miles.

Last year Mrs. Collins covered 8000 miles on a trip from Los Angeles to Chicago and return. In 1918 she made a tour in which she covered 3,000 miles. She frankly admits that she accepts "lifts" whenever they are offered her.

She left Los Angeles at 3:30 this morning and was in Santa Ana by 11 o'clock, having been given a ride in an automobile for about ten miles of the distance.

Mrs. Collins has been called the world's champion "hiker." On her tour she wears a mannish khaki outfit, and carries a pack.

CHARGE DISMISSED
The charge of using profane language in the presence of women, preferred against Will Moore, was dismissed in justice court, following a trial. Testimony was given by Mrs. J. A. Honea, Phillip Honea, George Boswell, Mrs. Blanche Spenser, Walter Williams and by the accused. Deputy District Attorney W. F. Menton prosecuted the case and Attorney Williams defended Moore.

Of Course I'll Take CELERY KING

I take it every season and so do mother and the children.

It's old fashioned and made of roots and herbs, but it's right there, just the same, and costs next to nothing.

We all think it's the best tonic laxative we ever heard about, and so do other people we have recommended it to.

Take it every other night for three weeks, if you want to feel better, sleep better, work better and be better.

It purifies the blood, clears the skin and chases away that worn-out feeling. Brew a cup tonight just like you make tea. You'll like it.—Adv.

TURKEYS!!

Wonderful Birds—not just turkeys, but young, juicy, fine-grained, well and carefully-fed birds, that are a pleasure to see, a pleasure to cook, a delight to eat.

Never in all our experience have we seen, here or elsewhere, a finer lot of strictly high-grade Turkeys. With this assurance, we invite you to inspect them carefully before you buy yours.

Such birds as these are a cheaper, better buy than cheaply priced scrub birds, because they are all meat, fed and raised to grow meat; and its delicious, juicy, succulent meat, at that, goes farther and is therefore the essence of real economy.

MAN ARRESTED AS WIELDER OF KNIFE

Mystery surrounding the circumstances leading up to an alleged cutting affray at Buena Park was expected to be cleared up today when Ramon Hernandez was to be arraigned in justice court on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

The complaint against Hernandez was sworn to today by Mariano Casillas, who, on being questioned at the office of the district attorney, was unable to give any very clear account of the alleged assault upon him by the man complained against.

Casillas said that he went home, last night, and just as he was about to enter his residence, was attacked by Hernandez, who is alleged to have wielded a knife.

Hernandez was placed under arrest by Under Sheriff Jack Iman.

Sheriff C. E. Jackson today appointed Harry Leipsic a deputy.

MAN ORDERED TO PAY TEMPORARY ALIMONY

Newman R. Hargett, from whom Jessie Anne Hargett is seeking a divorce, today was under orders from Superior Judge Williams to pay his wife temporary alimony of $25 per month, pending the trial of the action, following a hearing on an order to show cause. J. C. Burke is attorney for the plaintiff.

MAY AID POLAND FUND
That there is a possibility of the congregation of the Trinity Lutheran Church of this city entering the campaign, just started in Southern California, to secure clothing and funds for the suffering people of Poland, was stated today by Rev. Schmoak the pastor. He stated, however, that up to this time he had received no notification that the local church would be expected to join in the campaign.

BANK BRINGS SUIT
Alleging that no part of a promissory note has been paid, the First National Bank of this city will seek to recover $700 and interest since July 2, 1918, from George A. Cook, through a suit which was filed in superior court today by Attorneys Head and Kutan.

IRVINE HAPPENINGS

IRVINE, Nov. 24.—On Friday evening a number of friends of J. K. Anlauf and family gathered at the school house for a farewell party.

There were 52 people who enjoyed the many pleasant games which were played. A large table was daintily decorated with Thanksgiving emblems. The table was bounteously heaped with a good variety of sandwiches and cake. Coffee and punch were also served.

Mrs. Anlauf and the children went to her folks in Bardsdale until their household goods are moved.

On Tuesday, November 25th, the regular meeting of the Irvine P. T. A. will be held. A program will be given by the children. All are urged to attend.

The wind did no serious damage, only that the house cleaners will be unusually busy for awhile. The garage belonging to Hurley Sears blew over on Friday morning and a large tree at the J. McDonald home blew over.

The school will have vacation on Thursday and Friday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ortega and family moved from Santa Ana to Irvine last week. Mr. and Mrs. Ortega will have charge of the Irvine hotel. Mrs.

Kraschel having sold the business to them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCombs moved from Los Angeles to Irvine last week.

Mr. McCombs will work in the warehouse, and Mrs. McCombs will be the bookkeeper in the warehouse.

TOO DRUNK TO PUT OUT FIRE IN OWN CLOTHES

At Carrisoza had an uncomfortable ten or fifteen minutes last evening in jail when fire broke out in his clothing and he seemed too drunk to make any effort to fight the blaze. The fire started in the watch pocket of his pants. He yelled for help and his cries were heard by some one near the city jail, who informed the police. By the time officers got to the place and Officer Combs could cut his trousers loose, the man had sustained quite a severe burn.

Before he could be taken before His Honor, City Recorder Heathman, this morning, it was necessary for one of the officers to purchase a pair of overalls for him.

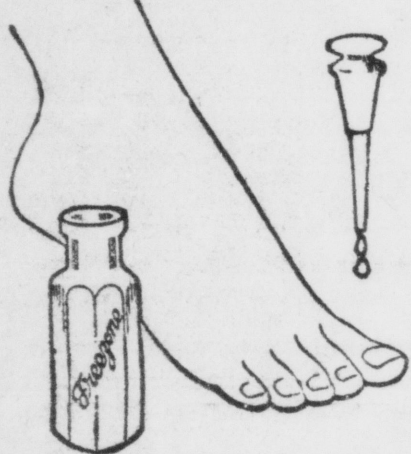

He was given a straight jail sentence and in the meantime he will be investigated.

MUCH OIL MONEY FOR SCHOOLS IN OKLAHOMA

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 24.—Oklahoma schools receive $2,000,000, a year from bonuses, royalties and rentals of school lands leased for oil, gas and other mineral purposes, according to figures recently made public.

Great development of the fields now in operation or the addition of new ones will cause the annual income to mount upward until the permanent school funds will amount to many millions.

More than a million and a half barrels of oil were taken from the state school lands during the past fiscal year. Millions of feet of natural gas were also sold.

Anaheim Orange and Lemon Growers Association Has Prosperous Year

ANAHEIM, Nov. 24.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Anaheim Orange and Lemon Growers' Association yesterday a large majority of the members was present and it is seen from the history of the association that in the short year and a quarter of its existence that it has grown to be a veritable young giant in the citrus fruit business.

According to the annual report of Manager G. W. Sandilands the association in the past fiscal year, which ended August 31st, shipped 191,154 boxes of oranges 1622 boxes of lemons and 1115 boxes of grapefruit. For these shipments there were received and distributed the sum of $632,549.42. And all of this was done in practically five months, between May and September, as the new packing house was not completed until May, but little attempt was made to do business before that date.

A surplus of $14,652.39 was ordered distributed.

A new departure of the association is the hauling of all its fruits from the groves of members to the packing house, and it employs two three-ton and one one-half-ton trucks for this work. It hauled 274,510 picking boxes of fruit. The association also has five crews fumigating and it will treat 10,000 trees this year. It distributed eighteen carloads of commercial fertilizer and fifty-eight carloads of stable manure and one carload of cover-drop seed to its members.

Derrick For First Venture on Huntington Beach Mesa
Now Building

The Standard Oil Company has commenced the erection of its first oil drilling rig on the Huntington Beach mesa and soon the drill will be going toward the basin of oil that is supposed to underlie that section. The site selected for the first venture is near the reservoir of the Huntington Beach Co. The work is under the direction of A. H. Parsons, and he expresses the opinion that but one well will be drilled at this time, according to the Huntington Beach News. He is authority for the statement that a chain drive rotary equipment will be used and that the well should be completed within six months.

The drill will be started some time between the 1st and 15th of December, about 5 days' time being required to erect the rig, and the balance in placing the boilers and engines, laying pipe lines and doing incidental jobs. Some new leases have been signed and the money paid to the land owners by a Fullerton man, but who he represents is not known at this writing. The lessee is represented in this vicinity by A. W. Griffith, manager of the La Bolea The Company.

Mr. Griffith and his backers are prepared to do business right off the bat and pay the money at once, while the others so far have been having leases signed, but so far as is known no money has been paid, although considerable cash is said to have been deposited with the title companies, awaiting reports.

One of the first men to receive any money for an oil lease in this district is R. C. Holmes, who owns three acres west of the Holly Sugar Co. Thursday afternoon Mr. Holmes received a roll of bills amounting to $150 or $50 per acre per annum for his land, and Mrs. Mary A. Savage who owns 2 acres adjoining Mr. Holmes, signed a lease and received a like amount. The terms of the lease call for the payment of $50 yearly per acre for 5 years, and a royalty of one-seventh of the oil.

All of the oil leases are drawn so that the lessee can terminate them at any time he may desire to do so, and in the event that the Standard does,

AMERICAN LEGION, REDS, CANNOT LIVE IN SAME COUNTRY

FOUNDATION OF BUSINESS IS THREATENED, CLAIMED

Merchants Likely to Be Deeply Concerned In Subject at Tuesday Dinner

Business men who are interested in putting a quietus on the activities of the Reds in this country, and who are interested in the preservation of their own commercial interests, should be vitally concerned in the subject to be discussed at the Chamber of Commerce 6:30 dinner, to be held at James' gold room tomorrow evening, when Senator Cartwright, H. M. Haldeman and other business men of Los Angeles will be the speakers, it is declared.

The subject is declared to be one of the deepest import to the commercial life, not only of Santa Ana, but of the country, state and nation. The speakers call attention to conditions that few men in active business life seem to grasp in all their scope, being most interested in their private affairs and inclined to let things drift along without attempt to correct them, it is stated.

The heart of business life is involved, in the opinion of the men who will be here and their only interest is to arouse the people to the necessity for greater interest in governmental affairs and in organizing opposition to the wave of I. W. W.-ism sweeping the country.

Merchants to Be Interested

It was expected that the merchants of this city would be interested in the meeting, but so far little interest has been manifested in the way of making reservations for the dinner. Tickets are being sold by the Chamber of Commerce. The subject is of sufficient importance to warrant the casting aside by merchants of engagements for the evening, and devoting a couple of hours to consideration of matters that are vital to all.

Following is an outline of why business men should become identified with the Commercial Federation of California and the principles it believes in:

- 1—It is a state-wide organization through which citizens can participate intelligently and patriotically in governmental affairs.
- 2—It will endeavor to instill in the minds of all citizens that it is their duty to devote some time and energy to the public welfare. The state's welfare is your welfare—its prosperity, your prosperity.
- 3—By organization, only, can efficient and just laws be enacted, and equal and economical government become an established fact.
- 4—Through it we can exert a potent influence in shaping the laws and policies of our state.
- 5—It puts the taxpayer in position, through united action, to protect himself from extravagant and wasteful administration of public affairs.
- 6—It will give the proper backing and support to representative men who will accept office.
- 7—It will educate its members to

Mystery Trio at Placentia Foiled In Bold Burglary

What was today considered by Sheriff C. E. Jackson and his deputies as one of the most daring attempts at burglary recently coming to the attention of the authorities was reported to the officers from Placentia, where three men were interrupted just as they had broken into the Hayes Grocery and were about to ransack the premises.

Two watchmen were on duty at a packing house opposite the grocery. Their attention was called to the store when two men were seen standing on the sidewalk in front, while a third was inside, revealed by a light that had been turned on.

One of the watchmen fired his revolver into the air, on the theory that if the three mysterious strangers were on legitimate business they would not be alarmed by the shot. When the revolver was fired the three men broke into a run and a few seconds later the roar of an automobile, proceeding toward Anaheim, was heard.

An investigation showed that the would-be robbers had pasted dypaper over the glass of the front door of the store and had smashed the glass with a rock. Nothing was missed from the store.

MASS MEETING OF EPISCOPALIANS THIS EVENING

Members of the Church of the Messiah, Episcopal, are to hold a mass meeting at the church tonight in the interest of forwarding what the Episcopal church of America has designated as the Nation-wide Movement. Rev. W. L. H. Benton, the rector, and the lay leaders of the church are making an effort to have the attendance tonight as nearly 100 per cent of the membership as is possible. Dean McCormick of Los Angeles, one of the best known and ablest Episcopal ministers on the coast, is to deliver an address.

The Nation-wide Movement is designed to stir up every Episcopal church in America to a full realization of its duties in relation to the opportunity to further Christ's Kingdom in the readjustment of world activities and thought now going on. During the first week in December a fund is to be raised for carrying on missionary and educational work of the church on a much larger scale than it has ever been carried on before.

At the morning service of the Church of the Messiah yesterday an explanation of the purposes of the Nation-wide Movement was made by T. B. Kelly, a member of the high school faculty.

S. A. AND TUSTIN MEN ORGANIZE COMPANY TO SEEK OIL

Buy Property Near Chapman Gusher and Lease It to Fullerton Oil Co.

For a price said to approximate close to $40,000, a group of well known Santa Ana and Tustin men has purchased eight acres of citrus land northeast of Anaheim and leased the property to the Fullerton Oil Company with the expectation of developing oil. It was announced today.

The organization taking over the property will be known as the Lambert Oil Company, Ray Lambert, well known rancher of Tustin, having been the prime mover in the undertaking. The land acquired is located one mile east of the famous Chapman well, and at a point midway between that well and the newly purchased land the Thompson gusher is located.

The land is in full bearing oranges and it is stated that even if no oil is developed on the property the investment still will prove a good one by reason of the returns that will be realized from citrus fruit.

Samuel Nau of Tustin has been elected president of the new company. L. J. Carden, prominent real estate dealer of Santa Ana, is secretary and treasurer and Ray Lambert is general manager.

Among others interested in the Lambert concern are Sherman Stevens, H. J. Perry, Charles Bowman, Judge R. Y. Williams, C. F. Smith, C. G. Seaman, Charles Boyer, George Wells, D. Stearns, Charles Artz, C. P. Elliott, E. Chast, Percy P. Rice, A. J. Lasby and Warren Freeman.

The property was purchased by the Lambert Oil Company from Walter Hartman.

LOCAL SHRINERS WILL GREET SAN DIEGANS

Shriners of Santa Ana are organizing a little party to meet 100 members of the Al Bahr Shrine of San Diego, when they come through this county on their way from San Diego to Los Angeles next Saturday. The members are coming in automobiles and are going to Los Angeles to take part in the reception to the Imperial Potentate and divan in the evening.

The delegation will be escorted to the Orange county line by motorcycle officers of San Diego and will be met by the motorcycle officers of this county and escorted through the county. The delegation will be met outside of Santa Ana by local party of Shriners, being formed for the purpose. Among the greeting party will be Mayor Mitchell and City Marshal Sam Jernigan.

A big time is in store for Shriners next Saturday evening and a large gathering of the clan is anticipated.

PUTTING UP RESIDENCE IN GROVE JUST BOUGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Kilson, who for many years were residents of Ventura county, have within the past two months purchased a walnut grove of twenty acres on McFadden street and ground was broken yesterday for the property for a new and up-to-date six-room bungalow and garage. The contractor is R. C. McMillan of Santa Ana. The Kilsons arrived at Santa Ana last Saturday and their car of household goods reached Santa Ana Wednesday. They made a splendid selection when they purchased the property, as it is one of the banner twenty-acre groves of budded walnuts. The crop which has just been harvested yielded between sixteen and seventeen tons, bringing in something over $9,000. Mr. and Mrs. Kilson were for more than thirty-two years residents of Ventura county, where Mr. Kilson served as agent and telegraph operator for the Southern Pacific company for twenty-nine years at Saticoy.

WILL REMOVE EMBARGO ON WHEAT AND FLOUR

NEW YORK, Nov. 24—The export and import embargoes on wheat and wheat flour will be removed, effective December 15, according to Julius Barnes, wheat director, United States Grain Corporation.

The embargo has been in effect more than two years.

Lifting of the embargo will permit foreign wheat and flour to enter the United States free of duty Barnes said.

METHODISTS IN CONFERENCE ON CAMPAIGN

The Methodist preachers of Orange county are meeting this afternoon in the First church of this city to consider and make plans for the evangelistic campaign of the denomination to help win one million souls this year.

Rev. John Oliver is at the head of this county group and the group meeting this afternoon is the next step in the organization of the campaign following the "Ministerial Retreat" held in Los Angeles last week when most of the ministers of Southern California were in attendance, where Bishop Adna W. Leonard presided and denominational leaders outlined the plan of campaign.

The group meetings are for prayer and fellowship and Bible study seeking to increase the spiritual passion of the preachers and to rehabilitate the old evangelistic fire of Methodism in the heart of life of every church.

The preachers of this county group are Rev. J. F. Humphreys of Anaheim; Rev. Enrique Narro and Rev. H. B. Clark of Fullerton; Rev. W. M. Harkness, Garden Grove; Rev. L. O. Bostwick, Harper; Rev. F. J. Seaman and Rev. L. P. Tierre, Huntington Beach; Rev. Wilfred Kent, Olinda; Rev. S. S. Sampson, Orange; Rev. J. Scott Willmarth, Wintersburg; Rev. J. C. Nava and Rev. John Oliver of Santa Ana.

District Superintendent H. F. Rasmus will preside at the Quarterly Conference of the First Methodist church.

Army Head Uses Car Drawn By Horse to Keep In Touch With Force

VILNA, Russia, Nov. 23.—Not only are the soldiers on the Polish battle front fighting the cold, but they are also battling mud as well, which makes conditions worse than they have been for months in this section.

Much of the ground just back of the front is marshy and the mud is so deep that the soldiers have a hard time getting through it. General Listowski had to solve a difficult problem to keep in touch with the front and look after conditions in the back areas as well.

To do this he has to make frequent trips back and forth. The mud and marshy ground made automobiles out of the question. Horse-drawn vehicles can not get through with any degree of speed, to say nothing of comfort. The general simply had to make speed, so he built a special car which runs on narrow gauge rails and is drawn by a horse. With this he keeps in communicating with both areas when shells are not tearing up the rails.

LONGSHOREMEN GIVEN 10 CENTS HOUR RAISE

NEW YORK, Nov. 24—Deep sea longshoremen along the Atlantic coast, who recently called off their strike, have been awarded an increase of ten cents an hour by the National Adjustment Commission. This will make their pay eighty cents an hour and $1.20 an hour for overtime. The rate will go into effect December 1st and continue until October 1, 1920.

BANDIT CAUGHT WITH ALL HIS BANK LOOT

A telegram received Saturday afternoon by Miss Katherine Edwards of 202 East Ninth street, from her brother-in-law, Herbert Gray, of Weaverville, stated that the "bandit" caught with all his loot.

The bandit referred to is the man who, on Friday of the week previous, walked into Gray's bank at Weaverville and at the point of a pistol forced him into the vault and who carried away between $10,000 and $15,000 in money.

Weaverville is located in the mountains far from any railroad. In leaving Weaverville, where he had posed as a prospector, the bandit rode a horse into the mountains and then went on foot. He made his way over the mountains into Siskiyou county, where he was captured. Gray formerly lived here.

ARMISTICE DAY OUTRAGE BORN OF POWERS OF HELL

Doctrine of Americanism Expounded In Sermon Last Night By Stevenson

Declaring that the American Legion and the I. W. W. cannot live in the same country and that the power that shot down, in cold blood, the men who were wearing the uniform at Centennial recently is born of the powers of hell and must go, Rev. J. A. Stevenson in his sermon at the First Presbyterian church last night preached a doctrine of Americanism—an issue that is the big question of today with America and the world in an upheaval in adjustment of conditions emanating from the world war.

He declared there is room for but one flag, and that the red, white and blue, and that there is room for but one type of citizen, and that the 100 per cent American. Rev. Stevenson, in part spoke as follows:

"This is a world of law. One can see it on every hand and run up against it in the dark. These laws stand. They can be violated but not eliminated. The man that tries to overthrow them goes to the hospital. The material world, in which we live, has come to its present state through fire and earthquake. Scientists tell us that there is an earthquake every fifteen minutes. That is, the world is still in the making. The laws of nature are still busy making adjustments.

Civilization Experiencing Quake

"A big war has been finished and a lot of little wars still unfinished. Civilization is still in the making. It is a process. It has not arrived. Certain men and groups of men crazed by lust for power, have tried to run counter to the eternal, immutable laws of justice. The result has been unparalleled resistance by the powers of right and unexpected disaster for themselves. The world has chosen, at great cost, between international anarchy and law and order. Now that the smoke of battle is clearing we want to look into the future. We will look first for a moment into the past.

"Our land was settled by men and women that believed in righteousness. It was conscience and character that brought men and women across the sea to build homes in a new land. They believed that human rights could be best secured and safeguarded by a government of the people, by the people and for the people. They recognized that such a government would have imperfections. Imperfections are inherent in everything human. Human government is the result of evolutionary process. Provision was made for amendments to the Constitution and for additional legislation made necessary for changing conditions. Conditions continue to change, changes are still necessary. "The world is not in the millen-

Your Christmas Shopping It Is None too Soon to Begin

- Almost before we know it the Christmas holidays will be here.
- If we don't prepare for it soon, Christmas will find us all hurried and worried and cheated of much of the joy and happiness that the season brings with it.
- Start today picking up little things that you know you are going to need.
- Shop slowly. Find something today for mother that you know she will like.
- Get something tomorrow for father or sister or brother—it need not be an expensive gift, but it must meet an individual need.
- Avoid, if possible, that one last hurry-scurry tiring day of shopping.
- Last minute shopping is expensive. Perhaps the very things you planned on getting cannot be found anywhere.
- Decide right now to lay away a gift a day from now till Christmas.

Intelligently understand the issues at hand and be able to offset, through its periodical, erroneous statements that often appear in the public prints.

8—It will tend to bring the employee and the employer into closer relationship, by showing identical interests and that laws detrimental to the employee cannot bring prosperity to the employee.

9—The cost of each membership, including dues and subscription to our periodical, is only $5 per annum, while the good the Federation can accomplish is unlimited.

The success of the Federation will depend upon the co-operation of members in building up our membership.

The Principles

The Commercial Federation of California further believes that the following principles are fundamentally sound:

First—That the more the state does for the man, the less the man will do for himself.

Second—That the spur of necessity and the prospect of private gain are the only universal incentives to exertion.

Third—That the ownership of private property honestly acquired is a sacred right that must be protected by law.

Fourth—That Bolshevism, Socialism and all other isms and schisms that take away the prospect of reward for intensive individual activity so discourage industry and thrift that the community or the country attempting to apply such principles must ultimately decay.

Fifth—That the government ownership or control of industry should not be applied to any industry that can be safely entrusted to the individual.

Sixth—That the widest opportunity should be given to the individual incentive and ability.

PLEADS GUILTY AND ASKS FOR PROBATION

Walter Stacey Saturday, in Judge West's department of the Superior court, pleaded guilty to a charge of using an automobile not his own. He asked for probation. Judgment will be pronounced November 28, at 9:30 a. m. Stacey attempted to drive an automobile away from the Temple Theatre a few weeks ago and was blocked by the owner having used an auto thief signal on one of the wheels.

J. R. Duke pleaded not guilty to a charge of operating an automobile while intoxicated. Trial set for January 6 and 7.

Harold Patterson, who says his true name is Carl Jorgensen, will answer to arraignment on November 28 at 9 a. m. He is charged with uttering a fictitious check.

M. Yamashiro will answer on November 28 at 9 a. m. to his arraignment on a charge of driving a machine while under the influence of liquor.

Frank Warfield, charged with non-support, pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for December 8 at 10 a. m.

Rev. J. A. Stevenson Says Reds and Legion Can't Stay In Same Place

Some look at the bad so persistently that they see no hope and some look so earnestly at the good that they see no danger while a vast number believe that the bad can be eliminated and the good conserved and cultivated.

Revolution or Evolution?

Two plans are proposed. One is evolution, the other revolution. One is constructive; the other destructive. Is the government to be improved or overthrown? For men and women have had large liberties to scatter the firebrands of hatred and destruction. Large groups of men have paraded under red flags. Syndicalism has been openly preached and frequently practiced. The legitimate result of such seeds has been a harvest of violence. Property has been burned; homes bombed and courts threatened.

Yet it took Centralia with its blood and death; to fully awaken us to the character of the forces that were undermining the foundations of our civilization.

The power that shot down, in cold blood, the men wearing the uniform of our country is born of the powers of hell, and it must go. The I. W. W. and the American Legion cannot live in the same country. There is room for but one type of citizen—100 per cent American. There is room for but one flag, and this one the red, white and blue. The day of the drink, the sixshooter and the bomb is gone. It belongs to the past age.

Apostles of Anarchy Must Go.

The man who lives under our flag shall not preach rebellion and get away with it. "What becomes of free speech?" Let him say just what he pleases—say it once—then take the consequences. The man that enjoys the protection of our flag shall not insult it and incite men to violence. If they are aliens, the ships are running, send them back. If they are citizens—there are plenty of rocks—put them on the stone pile.

"We must stop the sowers of seeds of violence and discontent or we will reap larger harvests of ruin and death. We must give the immigrant careful inspection. Give him a careful mental and moral delousing and if he still has things in his head that are incompatible with our institutions send him back.

"The world cannot be made right by repressive measures only. We can swat the fly but it is more effective if we destroy his breeding place and convert it into a garden.

"The man is blind that does not see cause for righteous discontent and ignoble if he does not make an earnest attempt to remove it. The cause is not to be found in any class. If all were rich the cause would remain. If all were poor the cause would be apparent. If all were employed or all employers disturbances would be found. The cause is to be found in the selfishness and greed of the human race; and hear's of that type are to be found in every class.

Make injustice impossible. Let us be done with the war between capital and labor—between state and citizen. War means a battlefield—then a desert.

"We need to take the 'square deal' out of the frame and the office and put it into the shop and the home. Put it in terms of food; clothing and shelter and labor. Honest labor must be matched to honest pay and adequate pay to efficient labor. When a man has a place in which to work he ought to have a home in which he can go and rest; in which he can keep his family in comfort, health and happiness.

"The tenement life of our poor is a stench in the nostrils of a liberty-loving people and our sweat-shops a monument to grasping greed. These things and all like them, ought to go—go quickly and go forever.

"Let our country blaze the way for the world in a great campaign for pure, unadulterated righteousness in social, political and economic relationships. The profiteer and the oppressor must feel the hand of the law and compelled to desist from the making of discontent by his dishonest practice. And the loafing laborer must be made to pay the penalty of his slackness and bear the ignominy of the slacker.

"Democracy demands the sunlight of intelligence. It cannot live in the darkness of ignorance. We must make intelligent Americans of all. The statistics of national illiteracy are appalling. We are proud of our schoolhouses and universities but we must not be blind to our ignorance.

"The statement is made by Frank E. Spaulding, a member of the A. E. F. Educational Corps Commission that one fourth of the men examined for the draft were illiterate. The people of the U. S. are, on the average, sixth graders. We have a total of illiterates over ten years of age of five and one half millions. There are in Massachusetts 118,302 over ten years of age that cannot read nor write.

"This is but a sample of the facts that could be presented. This cloud of ignorance makes possible the storm of unrest and anarchy. We ought to get rapidly to the place where we will spend as much money for education as we do for chewing gum and bring up a generation of intelligent Americans.

"We need citizens with minds that can perceive the right and more character to choose it. Man is more than a mere intelligent animal. He may live like a mere animal but he is unhappy and ashamed. He needs to be reminded that he must not live in the far country; he must fellowship with the eternal.

"Man needs the religious motive to

'ONLY ONE THAT HELPED ME' SHE SAYS

Mrs. Anderson Tried Many Medicines But Got No Relief Till She Took Tanlac

"I have taken a good many different medicines, but Tanlac is the only one that ever did me any good," said Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson, who lives at 534 Hyde St., San Francisco, Cal., to a Tanlac representative a few days ago. "For five years I suffered with nervous indigestion," continued Mrs. Anderson, "and had a very poor appetite, and what little I did manage to force down would sour on my stomach and as would form and press up against my heart, so that I would palpitate readily, and I could hardly breathe. My nerves were in very bad condition and I would lie awake at night for hours at a time, as I just couldn't go to sleep."

"Finally I got some Tanlac and began taking it, as I had read so much in the papers about the good it was doing others. To my surprise I began to improve after the first few doses, and now since I have taken five bottles of this medicine I am like a different woman. I am not bothered with indigestion any more, my appetite is good and I can eat anything I want and everything I eat agrees with me perfectly. I do not suffer with palpitation or shortness of breath and my nerves are in good condition and sleep simply fine and get up in the morning feeling rested and refreshed. Tanlac is a wonderful medicine and I tell all my friends about it every time I get an opportunity."

Tanlac is sold in Santa Ana by Lowley Drug Co., in Fullerton by G. V. Finch, in La Habra by R. H. Hilbert, in Huntington Beach by Rigdon's Pharmacy, in Orange by Dittmer's Mission Pharmacy, in Placentia by A. J. ORANGE PERSONALS AND NEWS NOTES

ORANGE, Nov. 24.—The Misses Anna Eltiste and Ella Klaner gave a miscellaneous shower at the Eltiste home in honor of Miss Esther Dierker who is soon to become the bride of John Eltiste. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink hearts and pink and white roses. The evening was spent playing Bunko. Miss Luella Dierker winning first prize, a bud vase, and Miss Schluter consolation prize.

Miss Dierker received many beautiful gifts. Those present were: Misses Esther Dierker, Erna Bandick, Esther and Sirene Jacobsen, Alma, Luella and Celeste Dierker, Laura Precht, Sophia Schleuter, Leona and Margaret Blank, Gertrude Klner, Adalia Ehen, Elfrieda Borchard, Mrs. Otto Risow, Mrs. Albert Schroeder and the hostesses, Misses Anna Eltiste and Ella Klaner.

Miss Josephine Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lewis, has departed for Morrisonville, Illinois, where, upon her arrival, she will become the bride of Wm. Klingler. Miss Lewis has been honored with many showers and parties since her engagement was announced, and the best wishes of many friends follow her.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Robbins entertained the rural carriers of the county at their home, 290 North Cambridge street. After the business meeting, light refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, coffee, cake and ice cream. Carriers from Anaheim, Fullerton, Buena Park and Garden Grove were present and a social time enjoyed by all.

Miss Vida Brown has left for her home in Campaign, Illinois, after spending more than a year at the home of her brother, A. C. Brown, and family at 260 South Shaffer. Miss Brown will be greatly missed, especially among her friends of the Methodist church, where she was very popular.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Billingsley of Villa Park went to Pasadena Saturday to attend the wedding of Miss Sarah Morrison, daughter of the former pastor of Villa Park church.

Mrs. Harriet L. Allen, mother of H. W. Allen of 237 South Center street, arrived from McMinnville, Oregon, for an indefinite visit with her son.

PASTORS SPRING SURPRISE ON FLOCKS

Rev. Stevenson, Rev. Oliver Exchange Pulpits at Morning Service

A Methodist minister in a Presbyterian pulpit appealing for subscriptions to the Presbyterian magazine and a Presbyterian in a Methodist pulpit pleading for better attendance at evening services, was the surprise perpetrated on the congregations of the First Presbyterian church and the First Methodist church yesterday morning. The exchange of pulpits was a complete surprise to the congregation. The contemplated exchange had been kept a profound secret from the church members. The surprised parties took it kindly and appeared to forgive the perpetrators.

Promptly at 11 o'clock Dr. John Oliver walked into the pulpit of the Presbyterian church and took possession as though he owned the premises, while Dr. Joe Stevenson walked into the pulpit of the First Methodist church and acted as though it had always been a part of his possessions. Dr. John Oliver boosted in the Presbyterian church for subscribers to the Presbyterian magazine, while Dr. Stevenson handed out some live down-to-date material on evening church attendance.

The surprise was planned by the two pastors involved. The congregations knew nothing about it until the services began, but the people entered into the exchange in good spirit and highly complimented the preachers for their pulpit. Dr. Stevenson preached a sermon on "Proving Spiritual Things by Spiritual Activities," and made many telling points both on the weakness and strength in the spiritual loyalty and indolence of the people. Dr. Oliver preached on "The Measure of a Man in Christ" and especially emphasized the need of full-grown spiritual manhood in our community and national life. He also complimented the Presbyterian church on the contribution of their pastor to the nation's need and said: "He was sorry he had not been in Santa Ana long enough to have served in France with Dr. Stevenson."

OBITUARY

Mrs. Edward P. Lamb was born in Boone county, Illinois, December 20, 1852, and died in Santa Ana, Cal., Tuesday morning, November 18, 1919.

Her maiden name was Mary K. Woodruff. She grew to womanhood in Illinois, and was married to Edward P. Lamb, April 2, 1874. In 1889 the young couple moved to Iowa and settled near Mason City. They left Iowa for South Dakota in 1898, and came from there to California, and made their home in Santa Ana in 1910.

Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Lamb, four of whom survive their mother. Edward W. Lamb died in Phoenix, Ariz., in December, 1909. The living children are Mrs. Allie M. Heacock, Mamie L. Lamb, Mrs. G. C. Bower of Santa Ana, and John Wesley Lamb, who recently served his country in France and who returned safely home some time ago.

Mrs. Edward P. Lamb was born of spiritually-minded parents who were faithful members of the Methodist Episcopal church. She had the high and blessed advantage of the inheritance that the Christian home and church bring to life and purity.

She was a quiet, gentle follower of her Lord and Master. She grew up in companionship with His life and partook of something of the fragrant beauty of his personality. There was something winsomely divine about her life, a beauty of holiness that made all who came within her circle to realize something of spiritual fellowship.

Some years ago my youngest child had been playing amid the violets, and when she came in the house the whole atmosphere was saturated with the fragrance of the flowers which unconsciously unfolded her; and like this, Sister Lamb's life carried something of the tender, gentle beauty of the Christ life into her home fellowship. It was easy to "take knowledge" that she had been with Christ, and the fuller knowledge was with her, in living and in dying that "Christ lived in her the hope of Glory."

She was never robust in her physical life, and in later years she had been quite frail, but she was strong in the spirit, and found robust joy in the spiritual strength of things eternal. As Victor Hugo said about one of his spiritual characters, "She was so frail that she was just an excuse for a soul to stay on the earth and she was so transparent that you could see the angel in her."

It is not death to die—
To leave this weary road,
And 'mid the brotherhood on high,
To be at home with God.

It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed by tears,
And wake in glorious repose
To spend eternal years.

It is not death to bear
The wrench that sets us free
From dungeon chain, to breathe the air
Of boundless liberty.

It is not death to fling
Aside this sinful dust,
And rise on strong exulting wing
To live among the just.

Jesus, thou Prince of life,
Thy chosen cannot die!
Like thee they conquer in the strife
To reign with thee on high.

Doings of Women's Clubs

Los Angeles—

One of the most popular of America's composers, Charles Wakefield Cadman, was on the program last week at the Friday Morning Club.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette spoke at the Ebull Club on Monday, taking for her subject, "The Next Twenty-five Years." Mrs. Burdette explained the purpose of the Women Voters' League and told of the conferences to be held in Los Angeles on November 28-29.

Miss Theresa Z. Cogswell, who served overseas as the representative for the California Federation of Women's Clubs, was guest of honor on Thursday evening at the Little Theatre, when the Los Angeles center of the Drama League presented a delightful and varied dramatic program.

Film production from the viewpoint of one who is a factor at the studios and the experiences of a movie dramatist were some of the entertaining subjects of the Woman's Press Club on Tuesday.

Ingleswood—
Colonel John Sobieski, the Polish lecturer, spoke at the Ingleswood Woman's Club on Wednesday afternoon. He took for his subject, "Three Great Americans," Henry Ward Beecher, Abraham Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt, Louis Sentons, the French consul, spoke on Women of each one has something to be thankful for.

Hollywood—

At the Woman's Club on Wednesday, John Collier, a national authority on Americanization, lectured on "Commercialization of the Moral Life."

Highlands—

At the open meeting of the Highlands Woman's Club on Friday evening, Attorney Halsey W. Allen of Redlands spoke on "The Community Property Law."

The Book Review section of the Contemporary Club gave the program at the club last week. Book Review days are always popular, but the nearness to Christmas made this one especially so.

"An Afternoon in the Redlands Bookshops" was the title chosen for the program.

Mrs. G. B. Dunham, chairman of the committee, introduced the subject by saying that the committee had hoped to get away from the war in their quest but had found it impossible, for as George Bernard Shaw says, she quoted, "We can not keep away from the war for we are living in a new world—a world made by the war."

Among the non-fiction reviewed were "Seven Purposes" by Margaret Cameron, "Nowadays" by Dunsenay, "Household Engineering" by Christine Frederick, "Another Sheaf," Galesworthy and Kipling's "Eyes of Asia."

San Diego—

Interpretive readings from current poetry was given at the Wednesday Club last week by Mrs. J. William Fisher. Her paper dealt with the poems of peace and victory which have been written since the signing of the armistice, leading through recent translations of folk songs of many nations.

It was a busy week among the San Diego women's clubs.

On Tuesday it was "Short Story" day at the San Diego Club—department of books and conversation. The following original stories were given by members:

"The Prodigals of Union Hell," Mrs. J. D. Campbell.

"Just the View Point," Mrs. Nat McDowell.

"The Dumping Place," Mrs. John B. Starkey.

Mrs. Rose Hartwick Thorpe presented a group of four of her recent unpublished poems.

The Arts and Crafts department presented a program on the "Art of the Netherlands," illustrated by stereoscopic views, while on Thursday Scandinavian music held the "boards" at the Art and Travel section.

A successful meeting of the College Women's Club was held Saturday afternoon, and the Americanization of the foreign element in the community was taken up and the conditions surrounding the proposed peace treaty were also discussed. Mrs. Gates, program leader, gave a clear interpretation of the various reservations included in the treaty and their probable effect on the league.

Do not fail to read the lecture on Christian Science in the Register tomorrow evening.

ENDS TROUBLES SCHOOLS GATHER WITH DOSE OF CYANIDE MANY POUNDS OLD PAPERS

Anaheim Newspaper Vender Saw Only Blackness and Troubles In Future

"Took my last dose at 11:15. Good-bye, everybody. John G. W."

His last dose was cyanide. This message scrawled on a piece of cardboard strip told the story of the death of John G. Wirsching of Anaheim, when his body was found Thursday afternoon by Officer Marcus Andrade of the Anaheim police force. He was 56 years of age and unmarried. He leaves a sister, Mrs. M. Smith, residing at San Diego and nephew, William M. Smith, of Brea, to whom he left his estate. Coroner C. D. Brown made an investigation yesterday.

Wirsching was a one-armed man and had been selling newspapers in Anaheim for many years. He was a familiar figure at the corner of Center and Los Angeles streets. Failing to see him at his accustomed stand for two days Officer Andrade decided to investigate, thinking that possibly the man was sick. He was found dead in his shack on North Los Angeles street. It is believed he had been dead two days. He left two $50 Liberty Bonds and $142.76 on deposit in the Anaheim National bank.

On the back of a letter received from a Los Angeles newspaper, he wrote in a bold, clear hand three different notes, each one of which he either signed with his full name or initials. In the first one he expressed the wish that his nephew, Wm. Malin, employed in the gasoline plant of the Union Oil Company at Brea, have his bonds, money and personal effects.

The next note indicates that business had not been going with him as it should. He wrote:

"Too many newspapers, etc., to give proper attention to any one, makes failure inevitable. Too many irons in the fire, and not attending to them properly, is the final outcome of this mess."

"I have deliberately taken a nice dose of cyanide of potassium to end an existence where I see nothing but blackness and unlimited trouble for all the future," he wrote in another note. "I had to lie like a trooper to get the poison. I hope it works all right."

THINKS EMPLOYERS CAUSE OF STRIKES

LONG BEACH, Cal., Nov. 24—"Unreasonableness of employers is back of much of the labor trouble in Australia, England and the United States. This is the opinion of Thos. W. Crothers, for several years including the war period, Canadian minister of war and now member of parliament from Ontario.

Crothers is in Long Beach for the winter.

"I do not believe there is even one strike in progress in Canada today," Crothers declared in an interview here. "In my opinion much of the trouble that exists in England, the United States and Australia between capital and labor, is because of the unreasonable attitude of employers."

"In Canada it has been the policy of the government to give employers representation on all important commissions. Not long ago, there was a heart to heart conference between industrial and labor leaders and while labor did not get everything it wanted, the discussion resulted in a much better understanding."

JUDGE SAYS WOMAN CAN'T STRIKE TARGET

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24—Belated judicial recognition of the well known fact that women lack control when it comes to throwing things, has at last been given.

It came in the suit of Jacob Ratzlaff against his wife, Sophia, for divorce.

Jacob testified his wife threw a bowl at him and it crushed his skull. Mrs. Ratzlaff contended she dropped the bowl, it broke and Jacob picked up a piece and scratched his ear with it.

The court ruled that if Mrs. Ratzlaff actually did throw the bowl at her spouse it probably didn't hit him and that if it did, she probably didn't throw it at him.

So the judge compromised by eliminating cruelty from the complaint and giving Ratzlaff a divorce on the grounds of desertion.

THIS REDSKIN A RED BECAUSE OF MATTRESS

EUREKA, Cal., Nov. 24—Jim Hunter, full-blooded red skin, and alleged "red," who is in the county jail charged with criminal syndicalism, was asked how he happened to join the I. W. W.

"They ask me if I got good bed," Jim said. "I say no. I no got good mattress. They say, 'Jim, you join I. W. W. and pretty soon get fine mattress.' I tell 'em how much, an' he say two dollar for join and four bits for dues. And I give 'em two dollar half. That's all."

The Seat of the Trouble. The father of a boy who has been in the habit of giving false fire alarms told the Liverpool police magistrates that his son had an over active brain. The magistrates, however, took the view that it was the seat of the child's emotions that wanted stimulating.—Punch, London.

At Cent a Pound Will Bring Nice Little Sum of $634.38

The recent paper drive of the Santa Ana Schools netted the following number of pounds of paper for each school. Since each pound represents a penny the value may be easily computed.

Poly High, 920; Intermediate, 10,070; Washington, 9,330; Jefferson, 8,250; Roosevelt, 7,280; Lincoln, 5,270; McKinley, 4,460; Spurgeon, 3,390; Fifth Street, 2,160; Santa Fe, 668; Public Library, 3,940; Laguna, 850; Tustin, 6,850; Total, 63,438 pounds.

The teachers of Santa Ana City schools are 100 per cent members of the Senior Red Cross.

The schools as schools, have joined 100 per cent, and with the exception of the High School that has $75.00 yet to raise and the Mexican Schools, have enough money on hand to pay up their membership. This is the finest beginning for a school year in the history of the activity here.

CORPORATION, PLAN OF POULTRY FIRM

Articles of incorporation of the Martin-McConnell Poultry Farms, whose principal place of business is at Garden Grove, were placed on file Saturday through Attorney Edgar K. Brown of Los Angeles. The capital stock is placed at $100,000, divided into 1000 shares of a par value of $100 each. The directors are J. V. McConnell and L. C. McConnell, of Garden Grove; Mrs. E. B. Martin and Elmer B. Martin, of Downey; and Edgar K. Brown. The activities of the concern cover a wide scope, including the manufacture of poultry medicines, but its main business will consist in dealing in poultry and eggs.

MRS. PANKHURST SAYS HUNS DIRECTING REDS

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 24—"Bolshevism is part of an international conspiracy, directed from Germany, to destroy the national unity in the allied countries," according to Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the British suffragette, here for a lecture early this week.

In an interview Mrs. Pankhurst said:

"They (the Germans) succeeded in Russia and are trying to everywhere else. The Centralia shooting is but one phase of the effort. Last summer it was hard to make people realize the sinister import of the Bolshevik plan, but now friends who thought I was a little crazed on the subject admit I'm right."

SKELETON OF DANZEY CHILD IS DISCOVERED

HAMMONTON, N. J., Nov. 24—The search for Billy Danzey, two and a half years old "perfect baby" who disappeared from his home here October 8, was changed today to a hunt for his slayer.

The boy's naked skeleton was found by a hunter late yesterday in a swamp three miles south of the home of his father. His clothes were scattered about and officials believe he was the victim of a degenerate.

Moreland Company Will Soon Put Out Two New Tractors Of Different Types

Moreland tractor working at site of new Moreland factory at Burbank

Exhaustive Experiments Are Made to Perfect Real Dependable Machine

Watt L. Moreland is ready to announce the production in a very short time of two farm tractors—of two different types.

For the past five years these products have been worked on almost continuously with the desire to produce a tractor that might be placed in the buyer's hands with the experimenting done at the expense of the maker and not of the buyer.

"A very extensive investigation of tractor faults has been made over a period covering two and a half years and the deeper the investigation went the more convinced was Mr. Moreland that while there was a number of good tractors on the market there might be a few good enough to bear the Moreland name," says Cotton Mather, local Moreland representative.

"It is a surprising thing in the tractor business that one finds spotty reputations. One make of tractor will be a great success in one section and in another section in a not very far removed district, the same tractor will have a very poor reputation with sales almost a negligible quantity."

"Investigation of this condition led to the conclusion that in the unsuccessful communities the fault lay with the manufacturer, and for this reason—tractors were sold before they were mechanically perfect, and the attendant troubles gave them such a black eye that several years of intensive effort have not been able to eradicate it. In the successful territories it was found that tractor sales had been made after the machines had gone through the experimental stages and buyers were able to do the greater part of the things promised with each machine."

"Knowing these things, Mr. Moreland determined that when the Moreland tractor went into the market it would be, as far as human desire and effort could make it, entirely free from usual tractor troubles."

"The Moreland traveling-track type tractor is a 15-20 H. P. job, and has several unusual features in design that make it highly desirable. It has shown, under very severe tests, a most remarkable working value. The entire job is a product of the Moreland factory. The motor has detachable sleeves so that worn or scored cylinders may be replaced by sleeves—an inexpensive operation, compared with the older method of re-boring. The motor is equipped with the Moreland gasifier, which gives a very high power return on distillate, at a very low cost."

"In test work, in hard-baked 'dobe,' four 12-inch plows have been handled for months without the slightest upward throw to the front end, and farming implement manufacturers who have watched tests at various times have stated it is one of the best medium-powered jobs in the western territory."

For Orchard Work. "The second tractor is of the wheel type with a 10-20 H. P. rating, and is primarily designed for citrus grove and orchard work. It is also highly practical for small acreage ranches and will fill a big need in this territory."

"These two types of equipment will go into production sometime next spring with a new company to be formed by Mr. Moreland, the capital of which has not yet been determined. It is expected that a large proportion of the units used in the production of these two tractors will be manufactured by the Moreland Motor Truck Company in its new plant at Burbank, and the marketing will be handled through the present Moreland Motor Truck sales organization."

BENJAMIN URGES SAYE JAPS PUFF REPUBLICANS TO ORGANIZE CHILI WEIGHT BY WATERING

Duty to Defeat Democrats In Coming Campaign He Declares

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—Charging that the present administration "tolerates, if it does not approve radicalism," Raymond Benjamin, regional assistant to the Republican national chairman, in an address to Republicans of the First Congressional district, challenged them to defeat the Democratic party.

"It is our solemn duty in the coming campaign," he said, "to return to the people a constitutional form of government and rid our land of disguised autocracy and tolerance, if not approval of radicalism."

"Organize, and organize now," he said, "must be our watchword."

"Systemizing of political machinery for the purposes of election is as simple as systemizing the business of a store for the efficient handling of customers," explained Chairman Benjamin.

"The established division of the state into counties and precincts, and these segregations of the voters, accomplishes more than half the work and lends simplicity to method," he continued.

Here the speaker took occasion to call attention to the inactivity of county committees—a majority of them—in participating actively in campaigns before and at election times.

Unfortunately, and this I think must be admitted," he asserted, "the great majority of the county committees have in the past few years done little or nothing toward active campaign work prior to or at election times. This is not only unfortunate, but unfair to the Republicans of the county who have by their vote elected these county committees to represent them and to work in behalf of the party."

Benjamin was appointed by Will H. Hays, Republican national chairman, as Hays' personal representative on the Pacific slope.

"This conference has been called for the purpose of considering, discussing and deciding upon plans of organization in the congressional district and in the various counties of the district in anticipation of the coming presidential, senatorial and congressional campaign," he explained.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

MONROVIA, Nov. 24.—Controlling interest in the National Bank of Monrovia and Granite Savings Bank has been purchased by C. W. Higgins of Minneapolis and I. A. Mellinthe of St. Paul, according to announcement made by W. M. Baird, who retired as president of the two banking houses.

LONG BEACH, Nov. 24.—The cornerstone of what will be this city's largest church was laid yesterday afternoon at Fifth street and Locust avenue. The new First Christian edifice will be one of concrete, 130 feet square and will cost $235,000. C. C. Chapman, president of the Southern California Christian Mission, and the Rev. M. Howard Faran, pastor of the Wilshire Avenue Christian church of Los Angeles, were the speakers, while the Rev. George P. Taubman, pastor of the local church, presided.

POMONA, Nov. 24.—Inquiries for furnished houses and rooms still continue to pour into the Chamber of Commerce, according to Charles F. Bayer, secretary of that organization. Every mail brings in letters from easterners that are either coming out here for the winter or have already arrived in some part of California.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 24.—Seven employees of the Southern California Edison Company yesterday arrived in San Bernardino with a story of a sand storm they will never forget. They were near Etiwanda when the storm broke loose. The sand was flying so thick that they could not see each other. They tied themselves together with a rope and groped about for three hours before they were out of the storm zone.

POMONA, Nov. 24.—A great mountain of fruit and vegetables was gathered here yesterday by the children of St. Paul's Episcopal church, of which Dr. S. C. Clark, Jr., is rector. This array of good things is destined for the Church Home for Children in Garvanza, which is operated under the auspices of the Episcopal church.

PASADENA, Nov. 24.—Rev. Sisson John J. Cantwell officiated at the dedication of the new wing of St. Elizabeth's Catholic church in Altadena yesterday morning. Bishop Cantwell preached the dedication sermon and was assisted in the service by Rev. George Donohoe of the Sacred Heart church, Los Angeles, and Rev. James A. Reardon, of St. Anthony's, Long Beach. Special music was provided for the occasion by an augmented choir.

POMONA, Nov. 24.—Final arrangements have been made by the Pomona Guards for turning over the armory to the American Legion. This action was accomplished by the officers and several of the long-time members of the Pomona Guards signing a trust deed to the city of Pomona. When the city council accepts the papers it will lease the building to the American Legion.

Brown Men Add 5 to 15 Per Cent to Profits By Method, Avers McPhee

Garden Grove, center of the chili pepper industry, is a busy shipping point these nine days, reports County Sealer of Weights and Measures Geo. McPhee, whose official duties call him to that town quite often just at present, and the busiest people among the many interested in the industry are the Japanese growers, who produce practically all of the commodity.

This season, according to rough estimates of those presumably in a position to know, there will be somewhere in the neighborhood of fifteen hundred tons of dried chilis produced in the Garden Grove district, the price to the growers for which has been fixed by contract at sixteen cents per pound, making a possible return of nearly half a million dollars.

"In addition to this possibility of profit in a regular way, the little brown brethren have by a simple expedient swelled their incomes all the way from five to fifteen per cent by packing their product with an excess moisture content that represented approximately that amount," said McPhee today. "This is made possible by the methods used in curing the peppers, the process calling for spraying of the product after it is taken from the drying houses in order to toughen it and prevent it from crumbling in the subsequent handling."

Says Turn Hose On
"The theory is to moisten the dried peppers with a very fine spray, which while sensibly adding to the weight, is necessary to facilitate proper handling, but the wily Jap evidently believes in baptism by immersion rather than by sprinkling, and so he turns on the hose and makes a wholesale job of it, and while considerable quantities of the product have been condemned and destroyed because of damage by mould as a result of this fraudulent practice of kitting the weight, the profit has so far mightily overbalanced the loss, and the little brown men are apparently well satisfied with things as they are."

"Another irregularity in the handling of Garden Grove's star product is the shipping of gross for net in sending the product to market, that is, calculating the weights of the containers as weights of the contents, a palpable wrong to begin with, and incidentally a plain violation of law. This has been put a stop to, however, for at a conference last week between myself and Garden Grove shippers and representatives of certain Los Angeles wholesale dealers, I notified those interested that unless the law is strictly observed in future and the actual net weight plainly marked on the containers, prosecutions will follow 'muy pronto.'"

Will Help Some
"This will help some," but there is no present way open to provide for the inevitable loss by shrinkage, and until some certain standard is established and tolerances fixed for moisture content, the ultimate consumer of the 'hot stuff' will continue to be the goat.
"This fact is acknowledged by the shippers and wholesale buyers, and at my suggestion the matter will be at once taken up with State Superintendent of Weights and Measures Charles G. Johnson at Sacramento, who will be asked to investigate and devise some way by which the handling and shipping of the product may be placed upon an equitable business basis. For it certainly needs it, and a live two-sided efficiency expert should be able to find profitable employment in this particular field."

If you like that harsh puckery taste, get common tea—it's full of tannin.

If you like the true tea-flavor, get fine tea, like Schilling's. It's so full of tea-flavor—fine, rich, invigorating tea-taste—that it actually costs less per cup than tea that costs 20 cents less per pound.

Common tea hasn't a single cup of real tea-flavor in a pound.

There are four flavors of Schilling Tea—Japan, Ceylon-India, Oolong, English Breakfast. All one quality. In parchment-lined moisture-proof packages. At grocers everywhere.

Calexico Business Man Says "No Border Trouble Impended"

The Register has received from Harry N. Sweet, a prominent business man of Calexico, a letter in which he states that the press reports of the disturbance at Calexico, following the killing of an American by a Mexican policeman in Mexicali, were greatly exaggerated.

Mr. Sweet says: "We were as near a border fracas in Calexico at the time these reports appeared as you are in Santa Ana while reading this letter."

The reports of which Mr. Sweet complains were sent out by the Calexico press correspondents, and, of course, the papers receiving them had no way of verifying them.

SHIPYARDS REOPEN ON BASIS OF OPEN SHOPS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—San Francisco ship yards opened their gates today for the first time since October 1. They opened on an open shop basis.

The employers asserted over 11,000 men had registered for work. The union heads claimed these men were for the most part common laborers and that the absence of skilled machinists would so cripple the yards that nothing could be accomplished.

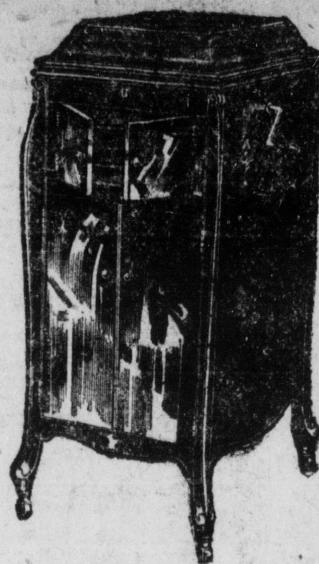

The strike was called when the employers refused to grant the men an increase of eight cents an hour over the Macy award.

A SKEPTICAL JURY
An Idaho lawyer tells of a case tried in that state some years ago, on which occasion the judge, an easterner, who desired to display his learning, instructed the jury very fully, laying down the law with the utmost authority. But the jurors, after deliberating some hours, found themselves unable to agree. Finally, the foreman asked for additional instructions.

"Judge, here's the trouble," said he. "The jury wants to know if what you told us was really the law, or only just your notion."—Harper's.
